Swim Program breaks All Prior Attendance Records

By Evelyn Riehl, CO 7-7450

The Coltons — Colton's summer recreation program, jointly sponsored by the Town and School Boards is well under way, with daily activities taking place at the Firemen's Field and the swimming area on the Racquette River. The swimming program broke all previous attendance records for two days in the first month of operation with 201 swimmers taking advantage of the hot weather to improve their skill under instructors Tim Hennessy, Irene Hepburn, Scott McRobbie and Gary Collins.

Gary, home for the summer, is putting to good use the training he is receiving as a Physical Education Major at the State University College at Brockport.

Over 75 folks were at Colton's Hepburn Library last Thursday to meet Mrs. Nancy Jackson, and to see her paintings in Bee's Wax. Librarian Kate Klein was assisted as hostess by Mrs. Ruth Garner of Potsdam.

While at the Library, I saw the lovely plaque given to the library by friends of Miss Kraft, who was for so many years Colton's Librarian. It reads:

GERTRUDE KRAFT
Outstanding Citizen
Inspiration to youth
Naturalist and Poet
The evening's Ice Cream Social and Band Concert completed a most busy day at the library. With many, many people enjoying the music, the sociability and the food provided by the Altar and Rosary Society of St. Peter, St. Paul's. The Encasement showing inside the library tired people to, a double art-music treat.

While sipping coffee on the library lawn (it was a very chilly evening) I chatted with Betty Hutchinson, daughter of Shorty and Elva Hutchinson, of South Colton, who was a 1962 C-P graduate. Betty, a Physiotherapist, has been working and studying in Syracuse since high school graduation. She and two other physiotherapists will leave Aug. 2nd for new positions at the Children's Primary Hospital in Salt Lake City, Utah, where they will work with handicapped children. Betty will continue her undergraduate studies at the University of Utah.

Douglas and Esther Corcoran Naman are the parents of Mary Jane, born May 21 in Georgetown, D. C. Their older son, Michael, 14 months, has been a guest of his grandmother, Ella Corcoran, and Marguerite and Bob O'Gorman of Colton, until the past week.

Down from Star Lake to visit the O'Gorman's and Mrs. Corcoran are the Henries: Rogene, Joan and John.

The North Country Button Club held its picnic meeting July 12 at the summer home of Mrs. Hazel Leavitt at Willington. Pursuing the year's program of Fables, Mrs. Leavitt retold the "Little Red Hen", and Miss Elizabeth Cunningham "Henny Penny".

Our very best wishes to James and Grace Long Regan who were married at Saint Pauls Church on June 25. Grace is the daughter of James and Margaret Long of South Colton, and a 1966 graduate of SUC Potsdam. Jim (who will be remembered as the feature soloist at this year's Colton Community Minstrel) is an employee at Nekosa-Edwards. The couple is living in Norwood.

Ted and Winifred Fisher of South Colton were hosts for their son Ted, his wife, Sheila, and their two children, for the past week. Ted works as an Instrument Technician Apprentice in the Kodak four year program training for technicians. The young Fishers live in West Henrietta near Rochester.

Also entertaining their children were Fred and Lillian Cassel. Their son Bill, his wife Judy, and Debbie and Andy were guests from Clinton. The other Cassel son, Fred, is a counselor at a boys camp at Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H.

Colton Girl Scouts Debbie Paul, Kathy Thomas and Kathy Demming were among the Scouts to attend Windy Acres Day Camp during its one week session. Among the Senior Scouts who were aides at the camp was Callista Watson.

Camping at Whispering Pines are Scouts Marcia Hepburn, Patsy Hepburn, Susan Collins, Doris Pederson, Terry Frank, and Susan Carrier.

Now it is official. All the surveying along the Racquette
