Dr. Shulman
in Convocation

Dr. Herman L. Shulman, acting president of Clarkson College of Technology, Potsdam, will represent the college in the academic procession of the Rutgers University Bicentennial Convocation.

About 30,000 persons from all over the world are expected to attend the 200th anniversary convocation, which will highlight the year-long celebration of the Rutgers Bicentennial.

Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey since 1945, dates its origin to 1766 when New Jersey Royal Governor William Franklin issued a charter in the name of King George III of England creating Queen's College. The college was renamed Rutgers in 1825 in honor of Col. Henry Rutgers, a New York philanthropist and benefactor of the struggling college.

The convocation will be held Sept. 22 in Rutgers Stadium on University Heights campus in nearby Piscataway Township.

Giant Book Sale slated for Colton

Colton Hepburn Library will conduct a Giant Book Sale during the week of July 24th. Every book is five cents regardless of its previous value. There will be old cook books, special animal books and highly illustrated bird and game books plus old favorites no longer suitable for library use which are still a delight to readers over forty years old.

This is a wonderful opportunity to add to your home library and a fine time to hunt for collector's items. Over three thousand books will be on display in the Community Room of the library this week and the books will be on sale from 9 to 5 every day from July 24th to the 29th.

Proceeds from the book sale will be added to the Gertrude Kraft Memorial Book Fund which may also be added to by interested citizens at any time.

Seaway Coin Club

There will be a regular monthly meeting of the Seaway Valley Coin Club on July 26 at the American Legion Club in Ogdensburg at 8 p.m. Slides will be shown.
