

UNITED FUND MAPS PLANS — Volunteer representatives of United Fund member agencies attended a dutch-treat dinner meeting in Canton last week. The session was arranged by the St. Lawrence County United Fund to brief member agencies concerning this fall's United Fund Campaign. There are now 28 individual youth and community health services combined in the annual drive and a $275,000 goal has been set for the campaign which will be held Sept. 25th-Oct. 28th. Pictured left to right, seated: Francis Ryan, Vice Chairman, West St. Lawrence Chapter, American Red Cross; George Phillips, President of the Board of Directors of the Ogdensburg Boys Club; Mrs. Fred Boehm, Chairman of

Rites held for Bernard M. Taylor

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, August 2, for Bernard M. Taylor, 55, of the Old Parishville Road who died suddenly Sunday, July 31 while fishing with his son, Robert, on the Racquette River at Blake Reservoir.

The services were at 9 a. m. at the family home, followed by Mass at 9:30 in St. Mary's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. Taylor was born January 23, 1911 in Parishville, the son of Myron and Bertha Wheeler Taylor. He was married to the former Theresa LaShomb in Potsdam on June 26, 1944. He held a position with the State Highway Department and operated a farm until ill health caused his retirement ten years ago.

He is survived by his wife; eight children, Robert, Potsdam; Gerald, serving in the Navy in San Diego; Mary, 18; David, 16; William, 13; Annie, 10; Beth, 9; and Lorraine, 4, all at home; his mother, Madrid; three brothers, Elmer, Parishville; Byron, Rte. 3, Potsdam; Gerald, Parishville; and one sister, Mrs. Charles (Leah) Sayer, Theresa.

Campsite

Questions and answers will be flying on another campus, too—the East-West Center for Intercultural Exchange at the University of Hawaii, Honolulu, where 128 Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. and Girl Scouts and Guides from the Asian Pacific countries will hold an East-West International Conference, July 28-August 23.

There the girls will explore each other's worlds—discuss the differences and seek the similarities. Family structure, schools, religions, arts, crafts, leisure-time activities—all will be part of the girl-to-girl exchange in an effort to promote mutual understanding and appreciation between East and West.

Summertime a lazy time? Of course, and Girl Scouts will be doing their share of sizzling under the sun, too—while their ideas simmer.

Scouts explore Future at Meet

Days are long, beaches beckon, there are no tests to take, no homework deadlines to meet, and who can blame a teenager for not wanting to think?

Yet this year, there will be a lot of teenage thinking going on when Girl Scouts take time out from summer fun to gather together on two university campuses to consider their responsibilities in a complex world.

On the campus of Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., 210 girls from 46 states are meeting now at the National Senior Girl Scout Conference on the Home. The girls will examine "Home Values in Action."

They will explore the many worlds of the home, from planning meals (and not merely how to most effectively place a sprig of parsley on a salad plate) to planning ahead to see the relation of family members to the home, the community, the nation and the world. In short, Girl Scouts are exploring the future in terms of the multiple roles they will assume as enlightened homemakers.

Antique shows beckon to buffs

Antique buffs will have a good time this weekend and next week.

Buckton will hold a Flea Market this Saturday, which will feature a number of area and downstate dealers. This is the first one to be held in this village.

The Waddington Antique Show will be next Wednesday and Thursday and this too always features a variety of dealers. It is sponsored by the Episcopal Church in Waddington and is held at the Town Hall.

The annual Holstein Show will be held at the Canton ATC Kennedy farm this Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. George LaPierre, manager of the ATC herd, will be in charge.

Phone Company

Direct distance dialing will place about 90 million telephones in the United States and Canada at the fingertips of area telephone customers and make long distance calls almost as fast and easy to place as local calls.
