

WAITING FOR THE BUSES under the supervision of Mrs. Flora Miller, Elementary Principal at Parishville Central School, summer school students file from the school to the driveway to await arrival of buses taking the group to Lake Placid. The longest trip the children have made, the journey to the Land of Make Believe will be the final major outing for the students, studying this summer under Title I funds, federal provision for the remedial reading course.

ALL ABOARD — Summer school students, grades 2-6 enrolled in the Parishville Hopkinton Remedial Reading program under Title I funds, board the bus for a trip to Lake Placid's "Land of Make-Believe." The fourth trip for the group, the students have also visited Santa's Workshop at the Watertown Zoo, and the St. Lawrence Seaway.

READY TO GO — Aboard the bus, the summer school students from Parishville settle down for the ride to Lake Placid and "The Land of Make Believe." With departure time set for 9 a.m., the little travelers enjoyed a picnic lunch along the way. Sixty children plus teachers made the trip, this time without the Headstarters who had accompanied the groups on all previous outings.

Co-op Libraries get State Monies

Legislation providing for what he termed "a balanced and comprehensive program of increased State aid to co-operative library systems" has been signed into law by Governor Rockefeller.

In approving the bill, passed by the Legislature upon his recommendation, the Governor declared "the public library systems of New York State, covering more than 98 per cent of the State, are of tremendous importance both to the advancement of education and to economic growth."

The new law provides:
An increase of per capita support from 30 to 40 cents;
An increase of the book acquisition reimbursement from 20 cents per capita for expenditures in excess of 30 cents per capita to 30 cents per capita for expenditures in excess of 40 cents;

A $125,000 increase — to $525,000 — of the special book reimbursement grant to the New York Public Library system;
A one-third increase in the annual grant for square miles served by each library;
A $5,000 increase of the annual county grant for each county served;

Continuance of the central library book aid program beyond the present limits on time and size of collections; and

A new unrestricted grant of 5 cents per capita, but not less than $15,000, to each library system for the further development of its central library.

"The bill", the Governor said, "will enable the public library systems of the State to continue in the face of spiraling costs to make it possible for every person in the State, regardless of residence, to have access to information and a wide range of library materials."

Clearance sought for Dishonorably discharged GI's

The director of the U. S. Employment Service has declared that persons receiving less than honorable military discharges should in time be able to clear their names.

Frank H. Cassell said HR 15683 — a bill concerning award of "exemplary rehabilitation certificates" to such persons — would help in this matter.

In testimony before the House Special Subcommittee on Discharges and Dismissal, he said the bill's principle "is as important as it is simple."

"It recognizes what has always been a mainstay of American thought — an individual, through perseverance and effort, can remove obstacles that block his path." He said this principle is especially important in the labor force.

local programs for preservation and enhancement of natural beauty; study and inventory natural and man-made beauty resources of the State; designate and preserve scenic sites; and promote aesthetic considerations in State construction projects. The Governor called the measure "an important outgrowth" of the recommendations of the Governor's Conference on Natural Beauty held in New York City on February 25, 1966.

Gratuity paid Vet's Survivor

Survivors of military personnel who die while on active duty are entitled to certain benefits, some of which include: Six-months gratuity pay (six times the serviceman's pay) plus any special allowances; all back pay and payment for accrued leave time; Burial expenses; Dependents indemnity and compensation ($120 plus 12% of the serviceman's base for the rest of the widow's life or, until she remarries); Social Security benefits; Medical, Commissary and Post Exchange privileges; and Scholarship and educational assistance for dependent children.

Got a friend or relative going into the service? Then get him a copy of the New York State Soldiers' & Sailors' Civil Relief Act from your local State Veteran Counselor or Veterans' Service Agency Director. It covers re-employment rights, and certain protection in civil matters arising from hardships caused by entering the service, as well as a host of other areas of concern.

Visit your local office of the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs or Veterans' Service Agency for up-to-date information concerning all veterans benefits.
