

Christine Colburn Married To Levi G. Wells Saturday

St. Mary's Church was the scene of the Sept. 9 wedding of Miss Christine Colburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Colburn, 4 Division St., and Levi G. Wells, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis P. Devan performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a scoop neck A-line gown of poile de soie accented by a single layer of lace on the belle sleeves and hem. The long silk illusion mantilla veil was bordered by matching lace. She carried a shower cascade bouquet of stephanotis and white poms.

Mrs. Barry Fitzgerald was her sister's matron of honor. She wore an antique gold long A-line crepe gown with a matching bow for her hair. She carried a crescent bouquet of gold and rust poms.

Miss Patsy Colburn, Miss Helen Johnson of Potsdam, and Miss Cindy Ryan of Ogdensburg were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of loden green and carried sunburst bouquets of yellow poms.

Barry Fitzgerald, Syracuse, served as best man with Jim Colburn, Peter Cleveland of Ithaca, and Richard Jump of Harrisburg, Pa., as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Colburn wore a navy blue A-line dress, with a rose colored hat and matching accessories. She wore a rose corsage.

A reception followed at the Roman Gardens Restaurant. The couple then left for Rome, Italy.

The former Miss Colburn graduated from Potsdam Central School and the A. Barton Kepburn School of Nursing in Ogdensburg. She is employed as a staff nurse at the Tompkins County Hospital in Ithaca.

Mr. Wells graduated from Potsdam Central School and the Central City Barber School and is employed at the Community Corners Barber Shop in Ithaca.

The couple will make their home at Schwan's Trailer Park, Box 97, Ithaca.

MRS. LEVI G. WELLS

Pressey Wedding Held

Miss Patricia Pressey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Pressey, Norfolk, became the bride of Harold Fanning, Rochester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Fanning, Richville, in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Francis J. Connors, at the Church of the Visitation, Norfolk, Saturday morning.

The bride escorted by her father, wore a gown of white Peau de Soie fashioned with a portrait neckline and trimmed with three dimensional Alencon lace at the waist and hemline. Her formal train, with matching lace, was detachable. She wore a floor length mantilla of Alencon lace and carried a bouquet of white roses, carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Diane Pressey, sister of the bride was her maid of honor. Attired in a floor length gown of frosted coral satin, she carried a bouquet of glads and carnations.

Another sister, Miss Molly Ann Pressey and the Misses Charlene Brower and Donna Emlaw were bridesmaids. They wore floor length gowns of frosted blue satin and carried bouquets of glads and carnations.

Robert Williams, Beaver Falls, was best man while Warner Strong and John Bowser of Rochester and Gordon Hughes of Utica seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pressey chose a street length dress of green crepe with matching accessories and wore a corsage of yellow orchids.

The mother of the groom wore a street length dress of blue with tan accessories and a corsage of yellow orchids. A reception was held at the Norwood Inn immediately following the ceremony.

For her going-away costume, the bride chose a green matching dress and coat ensemble with brown accessories and wore a corsage of carnations and roses.

Mrs. Fanning is a graduate of the Norwood-Norfolk Central School and is a former employee of the New York Telephone Co. in Utica.

The groom is a graduate of Syracuse University and is employed as a probation officer for Monroe County.

The couple will make their home at 75 Vanderland Park, Rochester.

Beauty Contest Saturday

Both the Miss Farm Bureau contest and the annual Talent contest, sponsored by the 20-30 Committee of the St. Lawrence County Farm Bureau will be conducted at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Canton High School.

Contestants for the Miss Farm Bureau contest must be from a Farm Bureau family and between 16 and 25 years of age. Judging will be on beauty and appearance, poise and maturity, and personality. Contestants will be asked to draw a question, read it and respond to it. Dress will be semi-formal. The winner will become Miss Farm Bureau of St. Lawrence County and will be a guest at the County annual meeting in October.

The winner will also be invited to attend the State Farm Bureau annual meeting at Grossinger's resort Hotel, Grossingers, where county winners will compete for the title of Miss Farm Bureau of New York State on Monday evening, Nov. 13.

Miss Emily Brice of DeKalb Junction is the current Miss Farm Bureau of New York State, having won the title in the competition last November. Miss Brice attended the American Farm Bureau annual meeting in Las Vegas, Nevada last December, to represent New York State.

Applicants for the Talent contest must be from farm families any age up to 30. Winning numbers will be presented at the County Farm Bureau annual meeting where they will be judged again and the Top Winner will be invited to appear on the entertainment program at the State Farm Bureau annual meeting.

Farm Bureau families and interested farm families are invited to attend the entire program on Sept. 16. Recreation and refreshments will follow the contests.

Cornell Seniors Engaged to Wed

Dr. and Mrs. Herman L. Shulman, 32 Hillcrest Drive, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Lynn, to Paul H. Weigel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Helen Weigel of New Hyde Park, L.I.

Miss Shulman is a 1964 graduate of Potsdam Central School and is presently a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences of Cornell University.

Mr. Weigel graduated from New Hyde Park High School in 1964 and is also a senior at the College of Arts and Sciences at Cornell University.

A summer wedding is planned.

MISS NANCY SCHULMAN SPEEDER FINE $10 Kay F. Anderson, 22 of North Lawrence, was fined $10 by Police Justice Robert Halliday after she was charged by Potsdam Village Police with speeding on Lawrence Ave. last Wednesday afternoon.

The Old Timer

He's the type of kid who goes to school, passes the toothpaste test and nothing else.

MISS SUZANNE LITHERLAND CUMMINS

Miss Cummins to Marry

The Rev. and Mrs. Varre Allis Cummins, 3 University Ave., Canton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Suzanne Litherland Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Charles Walker of Rochester.

Miss Cummins is a graduate of Potsdam Central School and William Smith College at Geneva. Her father is a former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Potsdam.

Mr. Walker attended St. John Fisher College and has recently completed four years in the United States Air Force. He is associated with Case-Hoyt Corp. in Rochester.

A November wedding is planned.

Women in the News

Around Potsdam

- SEPTEMBER
- 15 Vega Chapter OES family covered dish dinner, 6:30 p.m. Business meeting at 8 p.m.
  - 15,16,17 Flaming Leaves Antique Car Rally, Lake Placid.
  - 16 AAUW membership luncheon, 12:30 p.m., Sunset Lodge.
  - 16 Sigma Delta Clam Bake 2-6 p.m. Dinner dance, Town and Country Club, 6:30 p.m. - 1 a.m.
  - 18 Frank Barclay Post, American Legion, Legion Rooms, Civic Center, covered dish dinner 6:30 p.m.
  - 20 United Presbyterian Women, First Presbyterian Church, covered dish dinner, 6 p.m.
  - 21 Potsdam Woman's Bowling Association, Market Lanes, 9:30 p.m.
  - 22 United Presbyterian Women's annual Rummage Sale, Masonic Temple, 9 a.m.-3 p.m.
  - 29,30 Rotary District Conference, Whiteface Inn, Lake Placid.
  - 30 Vega Chapter's Dessert-Card Party and Fur Fashion Show, Masonic Temple, 1 p.m.

Miss Collins Married In Methodist Church

Miss Constance Lynn Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fay L. Collins, Bagdad Road, Potsdam, became the bride of North Wayne Bates, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Bates, Colton, Saturday, Sept. 2, in the Colton Methodist Church.

Mrs. Bates was graduated from Potsdam Central School and attended Champlain Valley School of Nursing in Plattsburgh. She is presently employed at Potsdam Hospital.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of taffeta. The lace top was fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long scalloped sleeves. The skirt was accented at the waist by petal pleats and a center panel of lace. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a lace cap, embroidered with seed pearls and crystals. The bride's bouquet was of lilies of the valley and white carnations centered with an orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Catherine Collins, sister of the bride. Her empire-waist gown was of blue brocade satin and she carried a bouquet of gold and bronze pom poms on gold satin leaves. The bridesmaid, Mrs. Ruth Daniels of Colton, wore an identical gown of gold and carried a bouquet of blue carnations on blue satin leaves.

Lloyd Daniels of Colton was best man. Ushers were Martin Collins, Potsdam, brother of the bride and Gary Collins, Potsdam, and Steven Collins, Colton, cousins of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Collins wore a sheath dress of taupe brown silk with brown accessories and a corsage of gold and bronze pom poms. Mrs. Bates chose two pieces of pink silk with pink accessories and a corsage of white pom poms.

A reception followed for 130

What's Doing

Dr. Congdon Enjoyed Many Birthday Cards

By Dusty Garner 2654465

Word has been received of the death of Dr. Randolph Congdon. Funeral services were held at Winter Park, Fla., on Monday.

I had a note from his daughter, Janet Congdon Spring, of New York City, saying "thank you for making a splurge of Fathers 90th birthday a huge pile of cards from Potsdam friends". She asked that a special thank you be given to Rotary Club for their group cards. Dr. Congdon wanted to hear every name.

Wednesday, Oct. 11 is the date of the Hospital Guild Membership Tea to be held this year at the home of Mrs. John Graham, 77 Pierrepont Ave. from 3-5:30 p.m. Local doctors' wives will serve as hostesses with Mrs. Carl Clark as chairman. All women of the area are invited to join the Guild and lend support to the various activities held through the year to aid the hospital.

Also mark Saturday, Sept.

30, on your calendar for the Dessert-Card party and Fur Fashion Show sponsored by Vega Chapter 98, OES. Furs will be from Anderson's Fur Shop, and tickets may be purchased from any officer or at the door. Location-Masonic Temple. Time-1 p.m.

Potsdam's Woman's Bowling Association will meet at 9:30 p.m. Sept. 21, at Market Lanes at which time delegates to the state convention will be elected. This is an important meeting, and everyone interested is urged to attend.

One of the East's best points for viewing the colors of fall foliage this year is Whiteface Mountain. This Adirondack peak is not only high-4,867 feet, but its double peaks are accessible by an eight-mile long paved highway and a two-mile aerial chairlift. The 30,000 square mile panorama from Whiteface's summit has long been acclaimed as one of the nation's finest.

This weekend (Friday, Sept. 15-Sunday, Sept. 17) the Flaming Leaves Antique Car Rally will be held at Whiteface with the antique autos attempting the drive to the summit. A Flea Market is scheduled for Saturday afternoon at the Land of Makebelieve and judging will take place on Sunday. The public is welcome.

Lions Club met Tuesday evening at the Town House for the first fall organizational meeting. President Sol Weisman has set September as membership month and urges the active participation of all club members.

At Rotary Club this week the history and role of the Potsdam Rescue Squad was discussed by members of the local squad.

If you are curious about the construction at St. Lawrence County National Bank, I am happy to report that a "time and temperature" sign is being installed.

Frank and Karen Nulf, left three-year old, Adele, left Sunday for the University of Ohio at Athens where Frank is in the Comparative Arts' doctoral program. Karen will teach design in the School of Architecture and Design. Both of the Nulfs are on sabbatical from SUCP-Fram from the art department and Karen from Learning Resources.

Their home at 15 Spring St. is occupied in their absence by Jim and Georgia Sutter who are new in town. The Sutters are also with SUCP-Jim, a sculptor in the art department; Georgia, at the library.

United Presbyterian Women will meet on Wednesday, Sept. 20, at 6 p.m. for a covered dish dinner meeting at the Church. Newcomers are invited, and plans for the year will be discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Brownell and family of Ann Arbor, Mich. visited Mr. Brownell's grandmother, Mrs. Ida Brownell of Cedar St., and the Dorothy family of West Stockholm over the weekend. They also spent some time with Mrs. Jessie Eager.

If you have a daughter between the ages of 7 and 17 who is interested in Girl Scouting, contact Mrs. Gary Bartow (265-2146) who is Potsdam's troop organizer. Troop meetings for juniors will start this month with the Brownie troops meeting early in October.

St. Mary's Altar and Rosary Society have set the dates for their annual fall rummage sale as Oct. 25 and 26 from 9-9 at the Masonic Temple. Fernie Bronchetti and Margaret Cuthbert will serve again as co-chairmen, and items for the sale may be left with them or with Gen Hafer or Marge Bradshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. David M. Gibson have returned to Greenville, Tenn., after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gibson of Pierrepont, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fadden, 35 Pierrepont Ave. Mrs. Gibson, the former Anna Fadden, has resumed her teaching duties at Greenville and David will continue work on an advanced degree at East Tennessee University, Johnson City.

The second annual A.O. Smith Harvestore Field Day is scheduled for Thursday at the Lloyd W. Flack farm, Madrid-Morley Rd. courtesy of Lavigne Bros., Norwood Motor Sales, W.R. Smithers and Sons, Art Robinson, Ray Kentner and son, Don Robinson and Sons, LeBeige and Curtis, E. Hadlock, L. Flack and A. Hundley.

The St. Lawrence County Branch, American Association of University Women, will hold a membership luncheon this Saturday at 12:30 p.m. at Sunset Lodge. The Rev. Max Coots will speak on the "Values in the Arts." This is the first meeting of the branch under the presidency of Mrs. John Tedford. Topics to be studied this year include "Society's Reflection in the Arts" and "Testing Values in a Changing Society." Rev. Coots' talk will keynote both the session, at which Mrs. Marlon Hodges, Ogdensburg, president of St. Lawrence FWRC, will preside.

MISS GENEVIEVE SYNOWSKI

Genevieve Synowski Engaged

Mrs. Theresa Synowski of R.D. 4 Potsdam, announces the engagement of her daughter, Genevieve Theresa, to Joseph Anthony Maggio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Maggio Utica.

Miss Synowski is a 1967 graduate of Potsdam High School and is a freshman at the State University at Cobleskill. She is majoring in nursing education.

Her fiancé is a 1964 graduate of Thomas R. Proctor High School, Utica. He is presently a senior at the State University at Potsdam. He is majoring in music education.

A summer wedding is planned.

County GOP Women List Guest Speakers

Guest speakers at the Fall meeting of the St. Lawrence County Federation of Women's Republican Clubs (SWRC) on Sept. 23 will include Gladys Brown, the new judicial district director of the Fourth Judicial District; Evelyn Badger, president of the Franklin County Federation WRC; and David Carr, Governor, who attended the TARS Camp at Bridgeport, Conn. Aug. 14-19. David was the recipient of a scholarship awarded by St. Lawrence County FWRC.

The meeting will convene at 12:30 at the Tick Tock restaurant, Canton with a Dutch Treat luncheon with a short business meeting to follow. Reservations should reach Winnie Brady at Canton 386-3887 by Monday evening.

Club presidents are asked to have their delegates or alternates present to vote on the proposed revisions to the constitution and bylaws. This is in accordance with article 10, section 1 of the bylaws which is quoted as follows: "These bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the delegates present at any meeting of this organization regularly called, provided the proposed amendment shall have been approved by the executive committee, and that at least 30 days before such meeting any proposed amendment shall have been sent to all local clubs."

All club members in good standing are invited to attend the session, at which Mrs. Marlon Hodges, Ogdensburg, president of St. Lawrence FWRC, will preside.

District 6 Nurses To Meet Sept. 14

Dr. Mildred S. Schmidt, R.N., Executive Secretary, Board of Examiners of the State Education Department, will speak at an all day session conducted by District 6 of the New York State Nurses Association today at the Hotel Woodruff, Watertown.

She will discuss "The Trends in Nursing Education and Its Effect on the Community". Dr. Schmidt has served as consultant for Associate Degree Program in Nursing for the National League for Nursing, and as associate in nursing education for the State Education Department.

A panel discussion period is planned for the afternoon. Panel members will include Marion Hazard, head of the Nursing Department Mohawk Valley Community College; Department of Nursing Hudson Valley Community College Margaret Sovie, educational Director and coordinator at Upstate Medical Center Hospital, Syracuse; George Nuffer, administrator Lewis County General Hospital; and Henry Shick, head of the guidance department Watertown High School.

Beginners

LOCKE, STEVEN JOHN, born Sept. 8, to James D. and Eileen Mahoney Locke, Brasher Falls.

CAYEY, KELLY SUE, born Sept. 8, to James E. and Kay Smith Cayey, South Colton.

What's Doing

Vega Chapter OES will meet tomorrow night with a family-covered dish dinner at 6:30. A business meeting will follow at 8 p.m. The dinner committee includes Edith Pierre, Clara Smith and Elinor Kellam.

Miss At

Dover Plains was Sept. 2 wedding of Louisa DeCarr of Parishville School now in Dover Plains, and also of Dover Mrs. Miss DeCarr, Mrs. Elda S. The Rev. at the Given in father, the original form of 'Estrait' la. The gown scalloped with bodice high neckline, erred sleeves, points, and A-line with Her detail train was of scalloped lace tuille bouffant place by her of iridescent. She ca tions. Mrs. Suz Potsdam was Bridesmaids 'DeCarr of Eretta Wilco Mrs. Lind I. Rose Marie Plains. They gowns styled 'con lace, fr scooped neck sleeves. Th sheath skirt 'mint green 'matching sil

Girl A

The train new "Design for the Thous Scout Council announced Kennedy, of The three work under Mrs. James 'St. Watertr for Lewis arty, to launch training for The "Design which grew year study "Scouts of the for helping themselves sponsibility their own leaders. Named to which will Scout leader ject in the Girl Scout Robert C. Washington girl scout years, a co chairman of borough, ar Fisher, Ma for St. Law Approximat the 14 neig "Thousand council will "Design for year. The throughout ferson and Includes a girls and 1 CEYLON F. Ceylon F. Route 2, P ed by Pots with drivin tail lights Thursday. raignment