

Watertown Church Schedules 'Garden Sunday', Sept. 24

Watertown — Garden Sunday at Stone Street Presbyterian Church, Watertown, is scheduled for September 24 with services at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. and the church open all day so that as many as possible may come in to see the flowers.

Previous Garden Sunday observances have been in June (15 times) and May (three times).

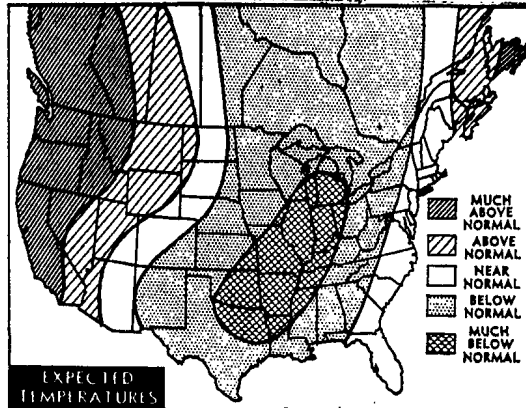

September flowers and foliage are expected to provide a different vista to the sanctuary garden where flowers are arranged as though they were growing not only on the pulpit platform but throughout the pews and in the windows and front corners.

"America the Beautiful" will be the theme of the vespers service. Music by the handbell choir, under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Eppinger; the adult choir, under the direction of Harold W. Munk; and individual soloists will relate to the theme of beauty. At certain points in the service, slides will be shown picturing the Grand Tetons, Yellowstone canyon, flowers of the Rocky Mountain areas, flowers at Lake Louise and at Butchart Gardens, ocean, desert, and Grand Canyon. Accompanying the slides, The Rev. Thomas John Carlisle will read poetry and scripture passages.

"What Didn't He Do?" will be the theme of Mr. Carlisle at the morning service. The handbell choir will play. Choral music will stress the theme of praise and creation.
