Gee where has the summer gone? Only hope we have some more nice sunny warm days, to do the million jobs that we have been going to do all summer, but never quite got to them.

ASC to Fill Vacancies

The county convention where farmer-chosen delegates will elect farmers to fill vacancies on the St. Law rence County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee will be at 1:30 p.m. next Wednesday at the Canton Free Library in Canton according to Silas Eakins, chairman, ASC Coun ty Committee.

The convention will be open to the public, and any person interested in observing the vo ting procedure may attend. However, only farmer delegates to the convention may participate in the election pro cess. Election is by secret ballot.

County committeemen are elected for 3-year staggered terms, and the service of each county committeeman is limited to three consecutive terms. Each year, the convention also elects a first and a second alternate committeeman, each for a one-year term.

ASC county and community committeement are in charge of the local administration of such farm - action programs as the Agricultural Conservation Program, the Cropland Adjustment Pro. gram, the feed grain program, the National Wool Program, commodity price - support loans and storage facility loans.

Eakins urged all ASC farmer-delegates to be sure to attend the county convention. These farmers were automatically chosen as convention delegates when they were elected recently by their farmer-neighbors to serve as ASC community committeemen for the coming year.
