Stockholm—Timmy LaMay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold LaMay, won $1,000 Sept. 25 at Arquette's Superette in the Super Shell Mileage game. Don't know who was the most excited, Tim or Bill. When we see these contests we always think of someone winning down state or something, never expect it to happen here.

Several from here attended the wedding Saturday in the Holy Cross Church in Hopkinton of Miss Charlene Collette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Collette, to Edward Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Russell. A reception followed in the Elfo Lodge, on the Parishville-Hopkinton Road.

They will reside here in West Stockholm. Our very best wishes go to them.

Mrs. Pearl Morrow of Watertown and Mrs. Bertha Brown of Ogdensburg have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Davis. On Sept. 23, Mrs. Josie Brown, Mrs. Lillian Reed, Mrs. Cora Cheney enjoyed a luncheon at the Davis home with Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Morrow. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent reminiscing and visiting about all those good old days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Edmonds and family of Syracuse and Mrs. Harold Page of Potsdam visited at the home of Mrs. Susan Davis, with The WSCS of the West Stockholm Methodist Church will meet tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Susan Davis, with Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Calvin Chaffee as hostesses.

The Wesleyan Service Guild will meet at 7:30 p.m. today at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Bronson. Don't forget to bring your donations for the rummage sale, which will be held in the Old Pearl's Store Oct. 12, 13, 14 to Mrs. Bernard Greene or Mrs. Warren Tracy.

There will be a chicken pie supper at the North Stockholm Church Hall on Wednesday, Oct. 11. Serving will start at 5 p.m.

Little Wendy Hutchinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hutchinson of Rochester, was baptized in the West Stockholm Methodist Church on Sunday. Her mother is the former Penny Pelsue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pelsue.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cheney of Rochester spent the weekend here visiting their parents.

Kenneth J. Sullivan, 56, Dies; Owned, Operated 11-B Tavern

Funeral services were held Monday morning for Kenneth J. Sullivan, 56, owner and operator of the 11-B Tavern, who died Friday, Sept. 30, in Potsdam Hospital. He had been a patient for about 15 days.

A prayer was given at the family home, followed by requiem mass at St. Mary's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery. Honorary bearers were Albert Bristol, Joseph Canali, Frank Mittiga, Robert Nickolson, Arthur Casada, William Gallagher, Mrs. Helen Barkley, and William Walsh. Bearers were Robert, William and Kenneth Sullivan. Ronald Waske, Charles McGinnis, and David Gregg.

Mr. Sullivan was born Feb. 16, 1911, in Potsdam, one of 11 children of William and Laura Seymour Sullivan. He attended Potsdam Schools. A Marine veteran of World War II, he had operated the 11-B Tavern, on the Hopkinton Road, for several years. He was a member of the many Sunday, after spending some time visiting their parents here.

Ronnie Williams and a friend Tom Williamson from Lacona, visited his home here this weekend and spent Saturday at Expo 67. Mrs. Agnes Williams visited friends in Ma-

American Legion Post in Winthrop, and the VFW and Elks of Potsdam. He was also a member of the State Restaurant and Liquor Dealers Association and was first vice president of that organization.

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Eileen Sullivan, a daughter Mrs. Roy (Janet) Wilson, a son Robert D. Sullivan of Winthrop, 13 grandchildren, six sisters, Mrs. Benjamin (Alice) Mason, Miss Marion Sullivan and Mrs. Louis (Catherine) White, all of Potsdam, Mrs. Leonard (Helen) Waske of Canton, Mrs. Joseph (Evelyn) Perry of Parish, and Mrs. Richard (Ruth) LaValley of Syracuse, and three brothers, Maurice of Potsdam, Martin of Adams, and Earl of Massena.

lone while they enjoyed the fair.

Was happy to hear that the New York State FFA Dairy Judging Team which consisted of Dick Matthews of Ogdensburg, son of the former Kathleen Austin, Cliff Cook of Heuvelton, and Alton LaVack of Gouverneur placed third at the National Cattle Congress in Waterloo, Iowa, last week.

Was especially interested because I saw them picked at State Fair.

I had a card from John Ackerman, who is on his way back to Stanford, Calif. He said there was snow in the Rockies. Oh, well we will soon know all about that—A flock of wild geese flew over yesterday, honking loudly and telling us what's coming.
