The Madrid town crier

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Alford and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Alford have returned to their homes following a 2800 mile trip to Nashville, Tenn. where they attended the Grand Ole Opry two evenings. They saw famous stars including Hank Snow, Lester Flatt, the Willis Brothers and a number of others. They also saw the Stoney Mountain Cloggers. They enjoyed a tour by bus around the Nashville area. They drove on the Blue Ridge Mountain highway and Skyline Drive, and Smokey Mountain Highway which Grace admits was scary. They also toured the Mammath Cave, Corning Glass and a number of other interesting places. Their trip covered nine different states. The four Young Alfred children remained with their aunt, Mrs. Patrick Kelley and family in Rochester where they spent most of their time in a new swimming pool.

Alton Ober and daughter and children of Piercefield spent one day the past week at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Dawley and family. Later they called on their brother, Francis Ober, a patient in the Moongate Nursing Home, Canton. They also called on Winfred Ober and family in Norwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Ober and Elizabeth Ober had lunch on Friday at the home of Lula Clark.

Mrs. Roger Lou Duncan and sons Jimmie and Jody of Wingdale have returned home after visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nicholson and other relatives in the area. Herman Schreiber was also a visitor at the Nicholson home recently.

Mrs. Patrick Kelley and children spent last week at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Mark Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Cheney, Sanfordville entertained at a picnic honoring four guests who were observing a birthday... They were Erma Aitchison, Rose Wood, Bernard Cheney and Howard Johnston. Refreshments included a bikini cake for the men attending and a regular cake for the ladies. Twenty nine persons attended.

Larry and Betty Jean Clark, Nicole and Dana camped at Higley Flow last week. On Wednesday Jean Aumell and Lula Clark spent the day with them.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Maxfield and children were vacationing until August 12.

About 80 Old Hymnals (Methodist and Pilgrim) are to be given away or discarded at the United Church. These hymnals, donated to the church in memory of loved ones, may be picked at the church until October by those who donated them. They will be in the Men's Classroom for the time being.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pricken and sons Frank and Sascha of Aist, Bruggen, West Germany, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Willard and family. Randy Willard spent last summer with the Pricken family as an exchange student of Madrid Waddington Central School.

Word received by friends of John (Jack) Gaines, a patient in a Plattsburgh hospital following a heart attack is he is gaining and will be home in a couple of weeks if his condition continues to improve. His wife, Barbara is staying with friends in Plattsburgh to be near her husband.
