

MD carnival in Parish Center

A neighborhood carnival against dystrophy will be held on Aug. 21 at Parish Center, Colton, Route 56. Christine Morrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fran Morrow, will serve as Ringmaster, assisted by friends and family.

The carnival, which begins at 10 a.m., will feature such games as darts, balloons, and popcorn, nickel pitching, fortune telling and many others, and all proceeds will go to aid the fight against dystrophy and related diseases afflicting millions.

The children got the idea for staging their event while watching TV personality Danny Burgess who is promoting Carnivals on his "Danny Burgess Show" a children's show seen on station WYNY.

Last year, in cooperation with the Muscular Dystrophy Association, 40,978 Carnivals were held by children across the country, and over $1.4 million was raised for MDA's research and patient service programs.

Forums on bay cleanup slated for this week

Congressman Robert C. McEwen, R-N.Y., said today arrangements have been completed for public forums in Alexandria Bay and Ogdensburg on Thursday and Friday during which Federal officials will be available to hear public testimony concerning the cleanup of the St. Lawrence River following a major oil spill on June 23.

Forums will be held at Convention Hall, Alexandria Bay, on Thursday and at the City Hall, Ogdensburg on Friday. Both sessions will begin at 1 p.m.

The Congressman said Rear Admiral Anthony F. Fugaro, Chief of the Coast Guard's Office of Marine Environment and Systems, will preside at both forums. The Admiral is also Chief of the Federal government's National Response Team which coordinates cleanup efforts following major oil spills.

Representatives of several other Federal agencies and departments have been invited to participate and hear the views of Northern New Yorkers who were affected by the St. Lawrence River oil spill.

The Federal officials will spend Thursday and Friday mornings making on-site inspections of the cleanup, both by air and water.

The Congressman said all interested parties are invited to voice their comments at the forums which he arranged "so that every aspect of the situation resulting from the oil spill can be heard."

RESIDING AT VALEHAVEN HOME

Earth portraits on exhibit here

A collection of earth portraits, acrylic painting on canvas, is now on display in the Potsdam office of The St. Lawrence National Bank. The work has been displayed over the past few months in several of the bank's seventeen offices, and will remain in Potsdam through September 3.

The artist, John Morrow, was born in Ogdensburg, and attended N.C.C.C., graduating in 1969 with an A.A. degree in Fine Art. He received his B.S. Degree in Art Education from State University College at Buffalo in 1971. He is presently chairman of the Art Department at Ogdensburg Free Academy, where he has been an instructor for the past four years.

"I began this series of paintings in the summer of '74. I became intrigued by the interesting, sometimes abstract patterns that I found arranged on nature's floor. The tattered bark of a fallen birch riddled by woodpeckers. Blades of grass carving a warm spot against winter's blanket. The crisp carpet of autumn's leaves. These became the theme of the series which I call "Earth Portraits." Although the style could be called photo-realism, I do not consider myself a photo realist. I use photographs only as a reference and take liberties in changing composition, contrast and color. I am not concerned with the mechanical process of duplicating photographic images on canvas," Morrow asserts. "Fifty to seventy-five hours of time is the requirement of each canvas," he added. Morrow resides on Patterson Street, in Ogdensburg. The majority of the paintings are for sale.
