

ENGAGEMENT- Mr. and Mrs. Otis Healy of Los Angeles, California, announce the engagement of their daughter Wendy to Brooks Washburn, son of Mr. & Mrs. Robert Washburn of Potsdam. The bride-to-be attended Westlake School in Los Angeles and graduated magna cum laude from Princeton University in 1974. She is preparing for a career in journalism and historical documentaries at the University of Southern California Graduate School of Journalism. Washburn, a 1971 graduate of Potsdam Central High School, graduated from Princeton University in 1975 with an honors degree in architecture. He is working for the Los Angeles architect A. Quincy Jones and plans to receive his M.A. in architecture from Harvard University. A garden wedding in the Healy home is planned for late September.

Marguerite A. Lord is Married to Joel Smith

Marguerite A. Lord, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Nicholas A. Lord, 630 Needles Blvd., Merritt Island, Florida, and Mrs. Joel E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Smith, 25 Fairlane Dr., Canton were united in marriage on Saturday, August 7, 1976. The ceremony took place at 10 a.m. in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Canton. The Reverend Donald J. Manfred, cousin of the groom, celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father and her mother wore a traditional floor length gown of sheer organza with Venice lace trim. The gown was fashioned with an Empire waist, horseshoe neckline and bell sleeves. The bride's veil of illusion was full length and edged with matching Venice lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath.

The bride's attendants wore floor length gowns of light blue polyester knit, styled with an Empire waist and halter neckline. A short ruffled, chiffon capelet completed the ensembles. The attendants carried matching bouquets of yellow roses and baby's breath. The flower girl carried a matching basket arrangement.

The bride's mother was attired in a tiered yellow organza floor length gown with a caped yoke, and a corsage of white orchids.

The mother of the groom wore a long gown of pale green knit with a sheer petal-edged cape of matching color, and an orchid corsage.

The grandmother of the groom chose a long pale green print with a corsage of assorted white flowers.

Mary Jane Lord of Tallahassee, Florida was her sister's maid of honor. The best man was Thomas M. Smith of Potsdam, brother of the groom. The bridesmaids were Melinda M. Smith of Canton, sister of the groom, and Barbara Nichols of Syracuse. The flower girl was Alison Egan of Albany cousin of the bride. The ushers were Lt. Charles N. Lord, U.S.A.F. Kentucky, and James Randall of Albany.

Following the wedding ceremony, a champagne breakfast was served to relatives and friends, and guests at the University Inn. After the reception the couple left for a five day honeymoon at Cape Cod. Upon their return they will be residing at the Clayton Arms Apts. 390 Clay Road, Rochester, where Smith will be associated with Lawyers Cooperative Publishing Firm of Rochester as a legal research editor. For travelling the bride chose a yellow knit jumpsuit with a matching hooded jacket.

The bride was graduated from Potsdam Central School in 1969, from State University College in Potsdam with a B.A. degree in 1973, and during the past year attended Albany State University for graduate study. She will complete her M.A. in English this fall. She taught English in the Jefferson Junior High School System, Merritt Island, Florida from 1973-1975.

Smith graduated from Potsdam Central School in 1969, attended McGill University from 1969-1971, and earned a B.A. degree in Economics from University of Rochester in 1973. He entered Albany Law School of Union University in 1973 and was awarded a degree of Juris Doctor in June, 1976.
