

Sister, brother are couple's attendants

Anita Roxanne Decker and Bruce Robert Wright were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony at 7:30 p.m. August 21 in the Sage Chapel, Cornell University. The Reverend Roy Hansen officiated.

The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Argie S. Decker of West Stockholm and Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Wright of Sussex, New Jersey.

The chapel was decorated with aisle candles and baskets of yellow and blue carnations. Organist was Mrs. Don Farr; soloist was Mrs. Candors Dryden. The couple were given in marriage by their parents.

For her nuptials, the bride chose an Empire gown of flowing white chiffon with beading accenting the sheer yoke and high neckline. The full skirt flowed into an attached chapel train. Sheer three-quarter length sleeves formed tiered trumpet cuffs. A beaded head piece held in place a floor length veil.

The bridal bouquet consisted of white gardenias, stephanotis and trailing ivy. Meribeth Richael was her sister, matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Diane Wright, sister of the bridegroom; Pam Rose, Christine Redmond, Sandra Farr, Nancy Everhart, Nancy Papachristou. The bride's niece, Dietre Richael, was flower girl.

The attendants were attired in floor length gowns of polyester knit in shades of light blue and yellow, fashioned with sweetheart necklines, butterfly sleeves and Empire waists and back ties.

Their bouquets were yellow roses, blue carnations and trailing ivy.

Clark S. Decker, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were David Wright, brother of the bridegroom, Steven Snook, Robert Percicsepe, Jim Hardin, Michell Richard, Richard Byma, Junior ushers was Craig Richael, nephew of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Decker chose a royal blue floor length gown of polyester knit and chiffon. Her flowers were a wristlet of yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a sleeveless floor length gown of peach polyester. She wore a wristlet of orange roses.

A reception, featuring dinner and dancing, was held at the Ramada Inn, Ithaca.

The bride's traveling costume for a wedding trip to Canada was a creme colored polyester knit pants suit.

The bride is a 1971 graduate of Potsdam Central School, and she holds an Associate of Applied Science degree from the State University of New York at Cobleskill and a Bachelor of Science degree from Cornell University.

She has been employed as assistant manager of the Washington office of North Central Jersey Federal Land Bank and Production Credit Association.

The bridegroom is a 1970 graduate of High Point Regional High School and holds an Associate of Applied Science degree from the State University of New York at Delhi, as well as a Bachelor of Science degree from Cornell University.

He is employed on his family's dairy operation in Sussex, New Jersey.

Weddings

Couple wed in Sidney

Karen Marie Sejerensen and Frank John Schaeffer were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at the Sacred Heart Church in Sidney, on August 7, 1978 at one o'clock in the afternoon. The Nuptial Mass was performed by the Reverend Paul Pilson before an altar decorated with bouquets of picardi carnations, yellow daisies and white carnations.

Organist was John Tyme. Readings were delivered by John A. Burke, godfather of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sejerensen of 10 Haynes Blvd., Sidney and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Schaeffer, Sidney Center.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of white lace organza fashioned with a band neckline long fitted sleeves, raised waistline and flounce hemline. Ruffles enhanced the neckline and yoke of the bodice. For her headpiece the bride wore a matching picture hat of white lace organza attached to a chapel-length veil of white silk illusion. She carried a sweetheart cascade of sonja roses, white and yellow mini carnations, and yellow daisies accented with baby's-breath.

Maid of Honor for the bride was Joanne Gregory. She wore a full-length gown of maize print voile fashioned with a V-neckline, short puffy sleeves, and full skirt. Venice lace trimmed the neckline, sleeves and hemline ruffle of her gown. She carried a hand bouquet of yellow daisies, peach carnations and white roses accented with baby's-breath.

Bridesmaids were Regina Paniccia, cousin of the bride, Colleen Brown, Patricia Hogan, and Christina Heckel. They were similarly attired in Nile green print voile gowns. All attendants wore white straw picture hats with ribbons to match their gowns and carried bouquets similar to the honor attendant.

Melanie Nagy, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a yellow dotted swiss full-length gown and a white straw picture hat with matching ribbon. She carried a nosegay similar to the other attendants.

Timothy McGregor served as best man. Ushers were John Schaeffer, brother of the bridegroom, Paul Parker, Howard Finch, and Gary Taylor.

Mrs. John L. Sejerensen, mother of the bride, wore a floor-length gown and matching coat of rose chiffon with matching accessories and a corsage of bridal pink roses and elegance carnations.

Mrs. Frank A. Schaeffer, mother of the bridegroom chose a floor-length gown of light Nile green with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses and white mini carnations.

Following the ceremony, a buffet luncheon for 200 guests was held at the Elks Club in Sidney. A three-tiered wedding cake adorned with daisies and cherubs was cut and served by Mrs. Ronald Bowen, cousin of the bride, with the assistance of the bridal attendants. Cathleen Bagnall, served punch and Susan Monis, cousin of the bride, assisted with the guest book.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Sidney High School and both are students at State University College, in Potsdam. The former Miss Sejerensen is majoring in mathematics and economics.

Schaeffer is majoring in psychology with a concentration in criminology.

After a wedding trip to Cape Cod the couple will be at home at 4 1/2 Cherry Street, Potsdam.
