

MR. AND MRS. GERALD M. LECLAIR

Wedding at St. John's Church

St. John's Church in Ogdensburg was the setting for the wedding of Valerie Baxter and Gerald Leclair on August 27. They were married in a noon ceremony with the Reverend John Reed officiating. The bride is the daughter of Alma C. Baxter and the late Leon Baxter of Potsdam. The bridegroom is the son of Gerald F. Leclair and the late Barbara Leclair of Ogdensburg. Wedding music included "If" and "We've Only Just Begun."

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Walter Richards. She was attired in a traditional gown of polyester knit with silk Venise lace trim. The gown was fashioned with an Empire waist, high neckline softly shirred, and long slim sleeves. The flowing skirt fell into a chapel length train. A band of fine lace held her fingertip veil of imported illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Ushers were Edwin Short of Lisbon, Michael Doyle of Potsdam, William Carroll of Ogdensburg, and Ernest Tressider II of Canton. The mother of the bride was attired in a floor length shirtwaist gown of multicolored chiffon. She had a corsage of blue daisies. Following a reception held at the Lodge in Morristown, the couple left for a wedding trip to Ottawa. The bride's traveling costume was a peach colored jumpsuit.

A graduate of Potsdam Central School, the bride is an examiner at St. Lawrence County Department of Social Services. The bridegroom, a graduate of Ogdensburg Free Academy, is also an examiner at the Department of Social Services. The couple will reside at 410 New York Avenue, Ogdensburg.

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. LaLone of Rt. 1, Norwood, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Kathryn M. LaLone to Timothy C. Matson of 26 Park Street, Norwood. The bride-to-be, a 1976 graduate of Potsdam Central School, is presently employed by the Big N Department Store. Her fiancé, a 1976 graduate of Norwood-Norfolk Central School is an employee of the Dairy Queen in Potsdam. No wedding date has been set.
