

Durham, Perkins Are Wed

Miss Robin Lee Durham became the bride of Mr. Richard John Perkins on July 15, 1978. Rev. Bernard Kellogg officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony at the Newman Center in Potsdam. Traditional wedding music was provided by Robert John McGill.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jon Durham of 12 Leroy St., Potsdam. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Helen Perkins of Potsdam and Hazen Perkins of Syracuse.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a pinafore gown of organza with a cowl collar, high waist and long full sleeves. The dress was trimmed with bands of Cluny lace, and lace also topped the ruffled hemline with attached chapel length train. A Camelot cape of lace held the bride's waltz length veils of illusion. She carried red roses, daisies and babies breath. Maid of honor was Michelle Durham, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Gina Mittiga and Pam Frink. They wore gowns of peach, yellow and white check and green and white check, respectively. They carried carnations to match their dresses.

Best man was Scott Hayes. Ushers were Kevin Storrin and Marshall Durham, brother of the bride. Following a reception at the Elks Club in Potsdam the couple left for a wedding trip in the mountains.

The bride is a 1977 graduate of Potsdam Central School and a 1978 graduate of North Country Community College School of Nursing. She is employed as a nurse by Moongate Nursing Home in Canton. The bridegroom is a 1974 graduate of Potsdam Central School. He expects to graduate in December, 1978 from SUNY Potsdam. He is employed by the Village of Potsdam. The couple will reside at 61 Elm St., Potsdam.

A photo of a tuba mailbox owned by Frank Morgan of Potsdam is part of a new book called "Mailbox Mania," recently published in Milwaukee, Wis.

Morgan and over 100 rural families share their unique mailbox creations in "Mailbox Mania's" interesting collection of photos and stories about rural mail delivery and decorative mailboxes.

Over 100 photos of one-of-a-kind country mailboxes created by rural families are featured in the book. The tuba mailbox was the subject of a photograph taken several years ago by former Courier and Freeman staffer Mike Kane. The Associated Press picked up the photo and ran it over their photo wire at the time.

The unique mailbox is installed in an old tuba. When the door is opened, a recording of tuba music can be heard. To order copies of "Mailbox Mania," write to Country Store, 611 E. Wells Street, Milwaukee, Wis. 53202.
