Martin Gets Conservative Nod

The St. Lawrence County Conservative Party has endorsed incumbent Assemblyman Dave Martin's bid for reelection in the 112th Assembly District.

In announcing the endorsement Peter Hourihan said, "Mr. Martin has shown a sincere concern for the over-all best interests of all his constituent taxpayers. In addition, his performance and effectiveness as a first-term state assemblyman unquestionably warrants the respect and support of all persons who place effective and efficient representation ahead of partisanship and special interests.

"The endorsement of the Conservative Party is contingent solely upon the performance and ideologies of the individual. Further, we feel Mr. Martin's experience over the past two years in Albany will better prepare him for a succeeding term."

different types of artifacts. Shown above are, from left, Mrs. Riehl, coordinator; Darlene Klug; Roxanne Delosh; and Patti Reynolds. There are 39 in the archaeological program under the direction of Ron Brown. Assistant director was Mary Louise; and archaeologists were Steve Marquese and Chris Bears.

Public Record.

Douglas A. Jandreau, 30, Route 3, was charged Tuesday morning with driving while intoxicated.

Village police received a report at 12:08 p.m. Monday that there was a cow walking down Lawrence Avenue in the village. However, they said that the owner had taken care of it by the time they got there.

Willard P. Deere, 33, Parishville, was charged early Monday with driving while intoxicated and with driving to the left of a solid yellow line.

Village police investigated an apparent break-in to the Roxy Theater at 2:20 a.m. Monday. The southwest exit door was reported open and an investigation revealed that the top of the candy display case was pried open. That was the only apparent loss, they said.

Wayne K. Johnson, 36, Rise Road, was charged Saturday with trespass and with resisting arrest.

Dale H. Patten, 24, Lawrenceville, was charged Friday with issuing a bad check in the amount of $5.

Jeffrey D. Mason, 21, Route 4, was ticketed Friday on a charge of making an improper turn.

Frank J. Dzina III, 19, 18 Elm St., was charged Friday with unlicensed motorcycle operation.

Patrick Palermo, Largo, Fla., was charged Saturday with disorderly conduct.

Rusty G. Perkins, 18, Box 541, was charged Friday with a violation of the open container ordinance.

Village police charged a 17-year-old youth with petit larceny Thursday. They did not release his name because he was given youthful offender status.

Kevin A. Grant, 17, 19 Pine St., pleaded guilty to a charge of making an unsafe lane change and paid a $25 fine. He had been arrested Thursday on a charge of reckless driving, but pleaded to the lesser charge.

Steven Pryce, 18, Madrid, was charged Wednesday with a violation of the village open container ordinance.

Village police charged a 17-year-old girl Wednesday with an open container violation. Her name was withheld due to her age.

James J. Kingston, 21, Canton, was charged Wednesday with harassment.

Village police Wednesday charged a 15-year-old Norfolk girl with petit larceny in connection with the attempted theft of two cartons of cigarettes from Kinney's drug store in the Big N plaza.

Rodney L. Gladle, 12 Mechanic St., was charged Wednesday with driving the wrong way on a one-way street.

Bruce Daniel LaPage, 22, R.F.D. 3, was charge Tuesday with harassment. He was arrested on a warrant issued by Village Justice Robert Halliday.

Anthony Vincent Miraglia, 26, Westbury, N.Y., was charged Thursday with driving while intoxicated and speeding.

Dates Provide Teaching Days

TUPPER LAKE-Richard L. Francis, M.D. director of Sunmount Developmental Center, Tupper Lake, recently announced the 1978-79 schedule of teaching days to be held by the facility during the forthcoming months.

These are intended to acquaint students, professionals and other interested members of the community with various aspects of mental retardation and other developmental disabilities. The teaching days include lectures, tours of the facility and an interdisciplinary panel discussion. Teaching days are scheduled for Sept. 25, Oct. 16, Nov. 13, Feb. 26, 1979, March 19, 1979, and April 2 and April 30, 1979.

Any individual or group planning to attend or wanting more information about this program is directed to write to Floyd H. Carmichael, Chief of Staff Development and Training, Sunmount Developmental Center, Tupper Lake, 12966.
