P-H Health Classes See ROCES Program

PARISHVILLE- During the past 20 weeks, health classes at Parishville-Hopkinton Central received a great deal of exposure to a variety of health-related topics and presentations. The classes hosted guest speakers from various organizations on various topics. A wide variety of films, filmstrips and videotapes were seen to supplement the learning process. Topics covering areas necessary for survival, physical, mental-emotional, and social-environmental growth and development were covered. The stress was placed on the essentials for a healthy, happy life. Those areas in health will be carried on at Morrisstown Central this second half of the school year. Health education is one of the many services offered through the St. Lawrence - Lewis Counties ROCES.
