

Party Line: Norwood Area News

BY DAWN VICK 353-2322

Take your sweethearts out to dinner on Valentine's Day. I know of two fine places to get a good meal. The first is at the Norwood-Norfolk Central School cafeteria, where the National Honor Society will be holding a Lasagna dinner, serving from 5 to 7 p.m. Prices for adults will be $2.50, students, $2, children under twelve $1.75, and the real bargain is that a family ticket can be obtained for $10.

The second place is the Municipal Building in Norwood where the auxiliary of the Norwood Fire Department will start serving a cabbage roll dinner at 5 p.m. Adults are $3 children under 10 are $1.75, and take-out dinners will be available. Give mom a rest, and the family a treat.

Heart Fund Volunteers
Cele Straminsky gave me the names of the volunteers for the Heart Fund. Her co-chairperson is Jane Henry, and the 22 volunteers are: Maureen McKenna, Hiedi Sullivan, Karen Lustyik, Priscilla Vorce, Mary Jane Hibler, Kathleen Donahue, Ann Herne, Mary Lou LaComb, Christine Pusateri, Ellen Farrington, Diane LaComb, Marcia Murray, Peggy Mariano, Beth Konkoski, Jerry Henry, Richard Straminski, Sharon and Gladys Jarvis, Penny Kingsley, Christine and Barbara Frost, and Kathy Baxter. If there are any questions, Cele can be reached at 353-2775 and Jane can be reached at 353-2471.

Congratulations to Andrew Francis, Jr. who just received his Ph.D. in psychology from Cornell Medical Center.

Norwood-Norfolk Central schools will hold their mid-winter recess Feb. 19 through Feb. 23.

The Home-School Association of the Norwood-Norfolk Jr.-Sr. High School was officially organized on Feb. 8, with a constitution adopted and an election of officers. Officers are: Dean Richmond, president; Sally Sutter, vice president; Lindsay Ryan, secretary and Louise Allen, treasurer. The executive board will meet Thursday, Feb. 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the central school main office. Membership in the association is open to all parents, teachers and students who

Norwood Library News

A.W.O.L. from the Norwood Library is a never-circulated copy of Chilton's Auto Repair Manual, presented to the library as a memorial gift. No questions will be asked upon its return.

The Norwood Library has received information relative to the forthcoming Shakespeare programs to be presented over public broadcasting system, beginning this month. There is a college credit offered to those wishing it.

Another major programming feature to be presented by public broadcasting is a 10-week series of short subjects which will include plays, animations, art works and a wide variety of works and interests.

These programs are another in a long series of non-traditional services presented by local and regional libraries. New adult fiction at the Norwood Library: "Little Lives," Spyker; "Fifth Business," Davies; "Paloverde," Brikkin; "Fire Dawn," Coffman; "Bluegrass," Deal; "The Glass Palace," Gibbs; "The Malen Streak," Cookson; "Prelude to Terror," MacInnes; "The Other," Tucci; "The Sun and the Moon," Tryon.

Adult non-fiction: "Interior Decorating A-Z," Pepis; "The Puppet Master," Yamamoto; "Wheeling and Dealing," Baker; "Better Than Ever," Broder; "Publicity, How to Get It," O'Brien; "Ballet-Student's Primer," Ambrose; "Heather, Confessions of a Witch," Holzer; "Herbs that Heal," Thomson; "The Presidency Fincher," "The Complete Book of Running," Fixx.

Norwood Library hours, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, 2-5, 7-9 p.m.

would like to work for quality education in the school.

Will Be Missed
Ida Bixby will be missed by Norwood. She was active in the Golden Agers, and the United Church of Christ as well as heading the Cancer Fund. I had spoken to her many times on the phone, but when she was my roommate in Potsdam Hospital when I was in traction last fall I got to know her a lot better. I really enjoyed her sense of humor and philosophy about life. When the Cancer Drive is on, remember Ida and George. I think she might like that.

Dailey Ridge Presbyterian Church will be holding a sledding party at "Bert's Hill" on Feb. 21. The time is 10 a.m.
