Cagers Split Road Games

Clarkson College sophomore Jim Nizurski hit two free throws to tie the score of 64-64 and send the Knights into overtime against Ithaca College Friday night. In the overtime period Clarkson came out ahead of the ICAC's second place Bombers by a 75-68 margin.

Nizurski, a native of Lackawanna, N.Y., had 15 points and 10 rebounds in the contest. 6'4" forward Bill Cassidy had 12 points and 16 rebounds, and co-captain John Tarbell had 12 points.

On Saturday, the Knights ended up on the short side of a 69-67 contest with ICAC contender Hobart College.

Again Nizurski and Cassidy led the Clarkson cagers, with Nizurski hitting for 10 points and picking off 7 rebounds and Cassidy 10 points and 11 rebounds.

Clarkson now stands 2-8 in ICAC action and 5-16 overall for the season. They next travel to Rochester on Thursday, Feb. 22, for an 8 p.m. tip-off against St. John Fisher.

Hockey

The Clarkson College Golden Knights dropped ECAC Division I contests this weekend to Boston College, coached by former Clarkson mentor Len Seglarski, 8-6, and first-ranked Boston University, 5-4 in overtime.

If both games had ended after the second period, the Golden Knights would have come home with two wins. As it was, third period action proved to be unlucky for the Clarkson skaters. Boston College came from behind the score six goals in the final stanza to defeat the Knights and improve its record to 7-11. Boston University, ranked number one in the ECAC Division I race with a 16-2-1 record, was down 3-2 going in to the third period. They went on to tie the score before going on top for the first time, the only time it needed, with Marc Hetnik's goal with 42 seconds remaining in the overtime period.

Clarkson falls to seventh place in the ECAC with an 11-9 record. The Golden Knights are 17-11 overall.

Wrestling

Clarkson College will be sending two wrestlers to the National Championship Tournament later this month. Scott Elia and Craig Lewis, both freshmen at Clarkson, qualified for the tournament by winning the ICAC Championship in their respective weight classes. The ICAC (Independent College Athletic Conference) meet was held at Clarkson on Saturday, Feb. 10.

Elia, in the 118 weight class, scored a 9-6 decision and became the first wrestler to earn a ticket to the Nationals, to be held at Humbolt State College, Arcata, California, on March 2 and 3. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas J. Elia, 4065 Cramer Road, Canandaigua, New York.

Lewis, wrestling at 126, won a tough 4-2 decision in the ICAC's. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Lewis, Richard Road, Chenango Forks, New York.

Clarkson finished the ICAC Tournament in third place with 48¼ points. St. Lawrence University won the tournament for the seventh straight year with 97½ points, followed by R.P.I. with 58¼. Rounding out the five-team competition were Ithaca College, 45¼, and Rochester Institute of Technology, 35.

Basketball, Swim Teams Win

CANTON- Fred Silverman, the guy who brought all those hit shows to ABC before moving to NBC, ought to stop in Canton.

St. Lawrence University's basketball team has come up with apair of Dynamic Duos which might just fit right into a Saturday slot.

One of the duos, that of senior center Drew Skonberg and junior forward George Hughes, is pretty well known as thev were at All East, All ICAC and All New York State tandem a year ago and are leading the Saints in virtually every category.

But the other pair might get overlooked, and often literally is... 5-10 freshman guard Jim Berkman and Watertown and 5-6 freshman guard John Wright of Syracuse.

If Hughes and Skonberg are two Batmen, then Wrigth and Berkman are two Robins...just ask Ithaca College coach Tom Baker.

Skonberg scored 29 points and had 17 rebounds and Hughes scored 28 points and had 16 rebounds to lead the Saints to a 87-71 win over the Bombers Saturday afternoon, but Wright had a record 14 assists and Berkman tossed in 14 points as the Saints went to 10-5 overall and cemented their ICAC lead with a 7-1 conference mark.

"John was just super...he made some incredible passes to set up easy points; and Jim has been coming on and improving with every game," said Saint coach Paul Evans.

Swim Team

St. Lawrence University's men's swim team continued its annual run to Independent College Athletic Conference laurels Saturday afternoon, hanging R.P.I. out to dry with a 72-41 dual meet victory.

The Saints won eight of 13 events in the meet and were never really threatened in registering their fifth dual meet win against a pair of losses.

SLU is 2-0 in ICAC competition.

Hockey

Harry Houdini did not play in goal for the University of New Hampshire at St. Lawrence University on Saturday evening.

But, fans may have easily mistaken UNH goalie Greg Moffett for the famed magician-escape artist as he wriggled out of countless situations which could have normally resulted in a glaring look at the flashing red goal light and helped the Wildcats to a 5-2 win over the frustrated Saints.

SLU, which managed only 12 shots on net in their game against Vermont in the first two periods on Tuesday night, but charged back in the third period to score three goals and make a 5-4 game of it, picked up where they left off...peppering the cage.

Unfortunately, peppering the cage doesn't necessarily result in a bunch of goals and Moffeett's 41 saves in the first two periods did as much to spell the Saints doom as the offensive play of Bob Francis.

Francis, the son of former New York Ranger big Emile "Cat" Francis, who is now the top man for the St. Louis Blues, scored two gals in teh first period to stake the Wildcats to a 4-1 lead.

Doug Crawford looped in a goal in the second period to cut the Wildcat lead to 4-2...and the next goal in the game was going to be a big one...

New Hampshire got it, Brian Crowder scoring at 2:06 of the final period, and that was enough to hold off the Saints, who put a bunch of dents in the posts and cross bars, but what a whale of a time trying to get the puck past Moffett.

Foot Race Held

The Stillman Foote Running Club will hold its third Frozen Foote Race Feb. 17 at 10:30 a.m. at St. Lawrence University. Registration for the four-mile race begins at 10 a.m. in the Augsbury Phsyical Education Center lobby. There is no entry fee. Hot chocolate will be served. The Stillman Foote Memorial Boote will be presented to the winner.

Wescott Honored

Clarkson College skater Jav Wescott has been named Defenseman of the week in the ECAC (Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference) for the week ending Feb. 17. It is the second time this season that he has earned this recognition.

Wescott, a native of Lake Placid, New York, set up four goals as Clarkson defeated the University of Vermont 6-4, and became the second defenseman at the College to score 100 career points. He added three assists in Clarkson's 8-6 losing effort against Boston College.

Wescott, a senior industrial management major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wescott, Lake Placid.

Ski And Snowmobile Events Planned
