Army Commends Recruiters

BY DOROTHY AYERS
 Congratulations are in order for Howard and Julia Jones who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Jan. 19.

Richard Green of Hagle Road, who has been a patient in the VA Hospital in Syracuse for over a year, will be having his 72nd birthday on Jan. 30 and cards would mean a lot to him. He is incurably ill and paralyzed from the waist down. The address is: Veterans' Administration Hospital, Irving Avenue, Syracuse, 13210-6th Floor South.

Speaking of birthdays Nancy McCarthy's was Jan. 17, Nellie Watson's is Jan. 22, Manie Leonard Jan. 27 and her daughter, Iris Rexford on Jan. 28. Little Sonya Sevey on East Hill has a birthday Jan. 31.

Two of our own C-P School students, Kathy and Karen Conant, have composed a song entitled "World Wide Crown" which will be heard at the Olympics next month.

Their composition was entered in the Annual Legislature Exhibition of High School Arts and the 1980 Winter Olympic song writing competition.

The sisters belong to the senior high choral group and are students of Kaye Scott, C-P's vocal music director.

We can all bask in the reflected glory from our talented young people, right?

Partisan politics aside, anyone else out there unhappy over Governor Carey using $100,000 of the Olympic funds to winterize the summer home left to the state by Marjorie Post and known as "Top Ridge?"

Regardless of whether money comes from local, state or federal taxes, the fact remains it all comes from you and me—the taxpayer and at a time when inflation is really hurting so many fixed income people, this expenditure sounds like a clear message of "The public be damned."

Three Army recruiters from the Potsdam Recruiting Station were cited at a recent awards ceremony conducted by the Syracuse District Recruiting Command at the Holiday Inn in Syracuse.

Staff Sgt. Robert H. McAvoy, Staff Sgt. William W. Stearns and Sgt. Charles E. Prouty Jr., all earned letters of commendation for exceeding recruiting goals in the period October to December 1979.

McAvoy and Prouty were commended by Army Recruiting Command headquarters for achieving 150 percent of their goals while Stearns earned a letter of praise from the Northeast Region Recruiting Command for exceeding his goal by 145 percent.

Stearns and McAvoy also received commendations from NERRC for exceeding their assigned goals for the month of December.

The Potsdam recruiting station was also commended for achieving 100 percent or better of their assigned goal for the fiscal year that ended in October of 1979.

Sgt. Charles E. Prouty was awarded the distinctive emblem of the best in Army recruiting on Jan. 4.

Vocalist At Wild Oat

Ellen McIlwaine, original vocalist, slide guitarist and all-around remarkable musician will appear at the Wild Oat tavern and theatre on Jan. 28 at 9 p.m.

Tickets are $3 at the door. For more information call 265-9851. The Wild Oat is located in the PROSH building, Potsdam.

In The Service

HUGHES PROMOTED
 Marine Pfc. Harry J. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon T. Hughes of Star Route, Potsdam, has been promoted to his present rank while serving with Battalion Landing Team 113, 1st Marine Brigade, Kaneohe Bay, Hawaii.

A 1979 graduate of Parishville-Hopkinton Central High School, he joined the Marine Corps in January 1979.

ASSIGNED IN GERMANY
 Sgt. Scottie D. Sanders, whose wife, Alyceon, lives in Winthrop, recently was assigned as a crane operator with the 54th Engineer Battalion in Wildflecken, Germany.

Sanders entered the Army in August 1975.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion C. Sanders, live on Route 8, Paragould, Ark.

COMPLETES TRAINING
 Pvt. Richard F. Young, son of Mrs. Sally A. Miller, Potsdam, recently completed training as an armor crewman under the One Station Unit Training (OSUT) Program at the U.S. Army Armor School, Fort Knox, Ky.

OSUT is a 13-week period which combines basic combat training with advanced individual training.

During the training, students learn the duties of a tank crewman, including the firing of the tank's armament and small weapons. They also receive instruction in field radio operations, map reading and tank maintenance and repair.

Young's father, Richard S. Young, lives on Route 3, Potsdam.

ENTERS ARMY
 Terry V. Paige, son of Mrs. Luella P. Wells, Route 1, Colton, recently enrolled in the Army's Delayed Entry Program.

This program is designed to allow the individual to take up to one year before actually entering active duty. Additionally, this delay insures that the individual will be able to select the training and even the location of assignment upon entry.

Upon entering the active Army, the individual will undertake basic training learning skills such as drill and ceremonies, marksmanship, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

Completion basic training is but the first step. After graduation, the individual will be assigned for training in a specialty field.

Paige has met the qualifications and elected to receive training as a tracked-vehicle repairman.

He attended Colton-Pierrepont Central High School.

MS. CASSAVALUGH ENTERS ARMY
 Brenda M. Cassavaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cassavaugh, 9 Elderkin St., Potsdam, recently enrolled in the Army's Delayed Entry Program.

This program is designed to allow the individual to take up to one year before actually entering active duty. Additionally, this delay insures that the individual will be able to select the training and even the location of assignment upon entry.

Upon entering the active Army, the individual will undertake basic training learning skills such as drill and ceremonies, marksmanship, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and army history and traditions.

Completion of basic training is but the first step. After graduation, the individual will be assigned for training in a specialty field.

Cassavaugh has met the qualifications and elected to receive training as a military policewoman.

She is a senior at Potsdam Central High School.

COMPLETES BASIC
 Airman John P. Cutler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Cutler of 10 Depot St., Norwood, has completed Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base.

The airman, who is remaining at Lackland for specialized training in the security police field, studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

Airman Cutler is a 1975 graduate of Norwood-Norfolk Central High School.

COMPLETES TRAINING
 Pvt. Jeffrey L. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald F. Smith, Parishville, recently completed training as an armor crewman under the One Station Unit Training (OSUT) Program at the U.S. Army Armor School, Fort Knox, Ky.
