Barbara Anne Widmann

Private funeral services for Mrs. Barbara (Anne) Widmann, 28, 12 Waverly St., Potsdam, were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Jan. 29, 1980, at the Foster-Hax Funeral Home, Pulaski. Burial was to be made in the Mount Calvary Cemetery, Burlington, Vt.

In Canton, a memorial service was held at the Women's Shelter at the same time as the funeral service.

Mrs. Widmann was found dead Friday night in the bathtub of her residence. Reportedly, she suffered a seizure while taking a bath. Potsdam village police, who were notified about 8:25 p.m., said she was discovered by four other persons in the residence after they noticed water coming down through the ceiling below the tub.

Results of an autopsy were not available by Tuesday morning, according to County Coroner George Anderson.

Surviving are her parents Donald and Blanche A. Sheets Hammond, Altmar; three brothers, Chuck Hammond, Adna Wash, Daniel Hammond, Parish, and Martin Hammond, Saranac Lake; her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Leona Hammond, Burlington, Vt., and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ruby Sheets, Arvada, Colo.

She was born March 16, 1951 in Denver, Colo., and was graduated from West Genesee High School, Syracuse in 1969. She moved to Potsdam five years ago and enrolled this month at Potsdam State University College.

A marriage ended in separation. The Women's Shelter plans to furnish a room in her name. Donations may be made to the Women's Shelter, Canton.
