Towncrier: Madrid Area News

BY LULA CLARK

The entire communities of Madrid and Waddington heard with the deepest regret of the terrible accidental death of four of our young teenagers early Sunday morning. Deepest sympathy is extended to the families of the late Miss Patricia Pierce, James Wagner, David Griffin and Scott Cryderman. Deepest sympathy is also extended to the Madrid Waddington graduating class and the sophomore class in which the young people were members. Memorial services were held at the Mann Funeral home for the graduating class members and the Phillips Funeral Home in Waddington on Tuesday for Miss Pierce.

May God give you strength to bear your loss, that filled your hearts with sorrows. God grant you courage to go on, and meet each tomorrow. May God bring you peace and comfort now, as only he can do. God will keep you in His loving care, today and always too.

Mrs. Sadie Bradley reports her daughter, Mrs. Mildred Henry is recovering from pneumonia at her home in Morley.

Thought for the day: A lot of good could be accomplished in this world if nobody cared who got the credit.

SUCP Students Go To Albany Over Budget

Today (Tuesday) Potsdam State's Student Government Association, in cooperation with the United University Professors (UUP), participated in the "SAVE-SUNY" Day in Albany.

In response to previously announced SUNY-wide cuts, students, faculty and staff traveled to Albany to participate in a demonstration arranged in conjunction with the Student Association of State University (SASU).

Participants left Raymond Hall at 6:30 a.m. to travel to Albany for the convocation. This assembly of people from all state universities was a result of Governor Carey's proposed $4 million budget cut that would reduce the faculty and academic support areas of State University.

Tony Giardini, vice-president for Campus Affairs for State University, is visiting Potsdam's campus during the week of January 28.
