

Towncrier: Madrid Area News

BY LULA CLARK
Seaway Valley Senior Citizens will meet in Waconda Community Library on Feb. 12 at 12:30 p.m. for a ham dinner and business meeting. Bring a covered dish and table service.

Friends of Russell Farmer, who is spending the winter months in Florida with Mrs. Farmer, were sorry to learn of his recent illness there.

Madrid Grange will meet at the home of George Beckstead, Canton Feb. 27 at 8 p.m. An apple pie contest will be held. Members are asked to participate. Fresh apples are required.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Beckstead, Mr. and Mrs. Ulla Sharlow and children, had Sunday supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Webb and family.

The annual church meeting of the Madrid United Church was held Jan. 24 with devotions lead by Rev. Harlow Dolliber. Election of officers followed. Serving on the spiritual life committee are Phyllis McCall; Christian education will be Barbara Alford; Christian service, Sherry Chumpbell; trustees Alton Watson; memorial committee, Betty Rourke; stewardship and finance, Alton Fisher; pastor-parish relations, David Rourke; lay organization United Women, Onalie Beckstead; Men's Club Ray Stiles; PYF Sandra Perry; Happy Mediums, Marty Haenel.

Marian Frego Now Recuperating

NORWOOD—Marian Frego's many friends in the Norwood area will be glad to hear that she has returned to her winter home after major surgery at a hospital in Ormond Beach, Fla.

Marian was for many years an unofficial, volunteer director of Norwood youth activities such as Pee-Wee Hockey and Girl Scouting. Kiwanis members honored her as Norwood Woman of the Year the second year that plaque was given.

She and husband Antoine still spend summers at Lake Ozonia. Their winter address is: 139 West Lake Drive, Aldersgate Court, Orange City, Fla. 32763.

Three From Area Among Indicted

CANTON — Three persons from this area were named among 23 who were indicted by the January term of the grand jury, according to the grand jury's interim report.

Albert Arnold Rafter, 21, Brasher Falls and Roy Stevens Snyder, 30, Brasher Falls, were indicted for third degree burglary and petit larceny.

Stephen Anthony LaRock, 35, Norwood, was indicted for second degree forgery and second degree criminal possession of a forged instrument.

In all, the grand jury reported 13 open indictments against 16 persons. Five indictments against seven persons were sealed and the names or charges were not released to the public.

Carl Ford Retires, 20 Years With County

MADRID — "Never had a job I liked as well as I did the job I am leaving, the St. Lawrence County Highway Department in Canton," said Carl Ford, who retired Feb. 1, 1980.

Ford has worked the past 20 years as welder, mechanic and wing man on the snow plows. Prior to working in Canton Ford had worked at Alcoa as foreman from 1940-47. He worked at the Seaway development from 1947-54.

He also operated the family farm, worked for the late Wendell Murray in Potsdam, and at several other locations as a mechanic.

Ford resides on the Ford homestead with his son Eugene, Daley Ridge Road, Madrid. A son, Vernon resides on the Madrid-Waddington road with his wife. Mrs. Ford passed away Nov. 11, 1979 following a short illness.

Ford has several hobbies, including dart baseball, modern western square dancing and hunting.

Also, financial audit, Alton Watson and David Rourke; membership audit, Emma Benware; financial and secretary, Janet Raven; treasurer, Betty Dawley; 1980 budget presentation, Alton Fisher; nominating committee report, Linda Goodlen; election of officers, board and committees; lay leader report, Leila Hunter and Larry Bradley. All people indicated on the agenda should be prepared to make a summary report of 1979 activities at the annual meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Loris French entertained on Sunday a dinner honoring their son, Karlton French, who was observing his 18th birthday. Others attending were his grandmother, Mrs. Dora Jandrew, Laurie Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Duane French, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew French and David French and three white cats. Karlton received a number of gifts.

Madrid United Church ladies are planning a cookbook. Anyone with recipes are asked to contact Mrs. Dora Jandrew. The ladies have to date received recipes from Mrs. Carter in the White House.

Harold Adams has returned to the home of Mrs. Una McKenzie, Madrid Springs, where he is recuperating following an illness which confined him to Canton-Potsdam Hospital for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. David Snow had supper on Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sherman and daughter. The occasion was Mrs. Snow's birthday on Jan. 23.
