A resource person from the Syracuse Arthritis Center will be present to answer questions regarding the program.

For further information contact the group's president, Clara Smith, Potsdam, telephone 265-2313.

chapter of Betty's Friends for Animal Ecology, Inc. (B.F.A.E.) Inc., a non-profit humane organization which arranges neuter-spay appointments at local veterinarians for pets of persons in need.

During the past year B.F.A.E. Inc. has helped 110 local people have their pets altered at a lower cost. A new vet has been added to the two already serving the group.

Free transportation is sometimes provided for pets to get to vets. Additionally, B.F.A.E., Inc. has been actively educating people about their pets. Because New York State requires that humane treatment of animals, including neuter-spay, be taught in grades K-8 in any school receiving public funds, B.F.A.E., Inc., has developed a five lesson mini-course in pet care which the group will gladly send to any interested educator. Information about neuter-spay and an appointment with the vet of your choice can be arranged by calling 322-5617 or 265-9308, 6 p.m.-10 p.m.

Early Christmas shoppers are taking advantage of the sunny days which have been almost forgotten, with only several days without rain the past two months. Paul and Mary Ann Pryce shopped in Watertown; Beatrice Creekmore, Doris Caurough and Peggy Dixon spent the day Tuesday in Plattsburgh. Lula Clark and Jennie Johnston settled for a short shopping trip to Ogdensburg recently.

Halloween in Madrid was really quiet, haven't heard of any serious damage done. Watson Chevrolet garage had a 1982 Chevy missing, but it has been returned. The small children are welcomed, but when the older group appear at your door with, perhaps a pillow case to fill, that's something else.

William McAllister has undergone surgery in a hospital in Long Island. Mr. McAllister and wife Florence spend the summer months in their trailer home on Bridge Street. Speedy recovery, Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. McAllister spend the winter months in Long Island and Castaways Trailer Park, Big Pine Key, Florida.

Lloyd Wears has returned to his home on Main Street following several weeks as a patient in A. Barton Hepburn Hospital. Speedy recovery, Lloyd.

Cable television is being installed in nearly every home in Madrid village, also the rural area. Reception is just great. Plattsburgh, Syracuse, Burlington, Watertown, Norwood and New York City stations are very good.

Sadie Bradley is recuperating very nicely from eye surgery in Massena Hospital several weeks ago.
