

Patchwork: West Potsdam Area News

Thursday afternoon, Nov. 5, 1981: a day to remember. We broke the 60 degree mark on the thermometer and the sunshine was perfect.

Sitting on my back porch, barefoot in short sleeves and shorts, the sunshine beat down as I heard Wayne Phillips calling the cows, dead leaves rustling on a nearby poplar tree and an occasional car. All those who hurried South — eat your hearts out — you missed the day in November that shall be remembered.

Halloween is over. The young ones in this area met at the Methodist Church at 5 p.m., all dressed and ready to trick or treat. Drivers Cindy Barnes, Twila Hayes, Rosemary Sanford, and I filled the cars and each took a different route in the area. Each car had a container to collect for UNICEF and, of course each child had a bag for the goodies. Rosemary and I both noticed the one thing that was really different this year — the faces on the carved pumpkins were the best we ever saw. They were done by people full of imagination; one was done completely upside down.

Weldon and Shirley Lumley had a huge pumpkin by their doorstep and as Weldon said, "It got here in a whole day." This year, pumpkins were as interesting as some of the

She went into some details of the battle at Wounded Knee and then into many of her experiences while living there. At this time she is busy collecting good warm winter clothing to ship out there.

The business part of the meeting was conducted by Grace Jenack. Lois Aldous (delegate), Ruth Peterson (alternate) and Millie Post reported on their representing the Potsdam Zonta at the annual Zonta District 2

Conference held at the Sheraton in Utica, Oct. 23-25. Unfortunately, Ruth was ill but they did return with great enthusiasm. The seminars and election of officers kept them very busy. They returned with vigor and many good ideas to share. The next meeting will be held Dec. 3 at the Town House at 7 p.m.

Homer McEwen is still in the Potsdam Hospital. It's been over seven weeks now. Cards would be appreciated.

A very special 40th happy wedding anniversary to Kenneth and Dorothy Friedel Nov. 12.

Waddington and claims to have the lowest average in the league. Also discovered that Cindy and David Sullivan of Canton have purchased Margaret LaBarge's home. And then there was Tom Hall, he's not happy as his chickens aren't laying yet. Had to buy six eggs!

I attended the regular monthly meeting of the Potsdam Zonta Club Thursday evening. The speaker was Rosemary Kriescher. She spoke of her four years living on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota. The reservation is located in the foothills of the Blackhills and the Badlands.

The Sioux Indian, she said, has a lovely and basic religion. They describe poverty for instance as loss of self respect. "They are a people who live to possess themselves and not material goods. They believe there is nothing wrong in getting rich. It is only wrong to keep them" she said.

NEWSBRIEF

ALBANY — New York State Police Superintendent William G. Connelie has announced that George L. Jaques of Ray Brook Headquarters of Troop B is one of 19 new investigators in the Bureau of Criminal Investigation, effective Nov. 5.
