BY DOROTHY AYERS
262-2455

Good to be able to report that John Hayes is now convalescing at home. Junior Sevey had a checkup this past week at Saranac General. Naomi Ward is making slow but steady progress at home.

Manie Leonard is scheduled for eye surgery at Hepburn Hospital, Ogdensburg, on Nov. 18. Daughter Iris Rexford expects her mother will be in the hospital about five days.

At the November meeting of Senior Racquetters, four new members were welcomed: Wilson and Joyce Covert and Art and Ethel Tedford. Art's that genial character who comes around to see if our dogs are legal. A nominating committee was appointed: Homer Reed, chairman, Blanche Cayey and Francis Toof. Election of officers will take place at the December meeting and installation in January.

November birthdays for Frances Moore, Sid Rexford, Bernita Spicer and Peter Bayard.

The Syracuse Symphony Christmas Concert at the Syracuse War Memorial was enjoyed so much last year that we plan to go this year, weather permitting.

Between the club's donation and donations from members present, a sum of $50 was realized for the United Way.

On Nov. 10 at 10 a.m. in Midtown Apartments, Deputy Sheriff Rowe will speak on what "Neighborhood Watch" is all about and how to organize; sounds like a very good idea with all the vandalism taking place. Everyone is welcome.

Nov. 14 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. there will be open house at Erwin and Carra Garlough's home, celebrating their golden wedding anniversary. All friends and neighbors are invited to attend.

Nov. 17 at 10 a.m. there will be a Tupperware party at Judy Ames' home on East Hill Road. This is for the benefit of the South Colton Community Church; everyone welcome.

Nov. 17 at 6:30 p.m. there will be a covered dish supper at Hepburn Library for the Senior Racquetters and their friends and Erwin and Carra Garlough will be honored guests sine their 50th anniversary is the next day. Please bring a dish to pass and your own table service.

Nov. 19 at Colton-Pierrepont School cafeteria the menu is turkey and the fixin's, and Mr. Kelly has invited any senior citizen who cares to come, to have lunch there that day at a cost of $1.30. See you there.

GUILD BAZAAR — Imaginative holiday wreaths, fall arrangements, soft toys and much more will be offered at the Canton-Potsdam Hospital Guild's annual bazaar from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Nov. 14 in Thatcher Hall, Potsdam Col-

Holiday Bazaar Planned By Guild

The annual Holiday Bazaar and Tea sponsored by the Potsdam Hospital Guild of the Canton-Potsdam Hospital will be held Nov. 14, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Thatcher Hall on the campus of Potsdam College.

Featured at the sale will be hand-made gifts from the Hospital Gift Shop to include toys, jewelry, stationery, candles and infants' wear; the Kountry Kitchen featuring home-baked goods, preserves and candy; and plants.

Choice items contributed by local businesses and individuals have been donated for a drawing to be held in conjunction with the bazaar. Tickets are available prior to the event from all guild members, with the winning tickets to be drawn at the bazaar.

A number of signs directing the public to Thatcher Hall will be prominently displayed on Pierrepont Avenue in the Potsdam village.

Local Girl Scouts will greet contributors at their vehicles in front of Thatcher Hall from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. to deliver food, plants, handmades, etc., to the sale location.

A special corner for children under 12 years of age will be supervised by members of Gamma Sigma Sigma, service sorority at Potsdam College.

Funds raised at the bazaar and tea are used to purchase equipment for the Canton-Potsdam Hospital.

The community is invited to give time and talent in any way to this public endeavor.
