Knights Ready For Pair Of Tournaments

The Clarkson College Golden Knights, coming off a week of tournament play, are preparing for two more tournaments, the second annual Empire Cup Tournament to be held in Glens Falls Nov. 13 and 14, and the North Country Thanksgiving Hockey Festival, which the Green and Gold will co-host with St. Lawrence University Nov. 26 through 28.

The Empire Cup tourney will be held in the Glens Falls Civic Center and will feature an all-New York State state of teams; Clarkson, Colgate, RPI and St. Lawrence.

Thanksgiving Tournament
Again this year the North Country Thanksgiving Hockey Festival will see arch-rivals Clarkson and SLU co-hosting a tournament which promises to offer great hockey. This year, the tourney will begin at 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 26, when Brown University will meet SLU in Appleton Arena. Brown will face Clarkson on the following night at 7:30, then the Knights and the Saints will close the tourney on Nov. 28 in Appleton.

'Turkey Trot' Nov. 14

CANTON — Axtell's Sports of Canton will sponsor the fourth annual Axtell Turkey Trot on Nov. 14, beginning at 10:30 a.m. on the Stillman Footc cross-country course at St. Lawrence University. The race, which is coordinated by the Stillman Footc Running Club and Converse running shoes, Inc., will feature a 5-kilometer run for women and a 10-kilometer run for men. A large field of runners, including top competitors from Canada and New England, is expected. Pre-race favorites are John Underwood of Canton and 5-kilometer course-record holder Amber Klock of Gouverneur. Divisional competition should also be intense, with many course records expected to fall.

Registration for the Turkey Trot will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the Augsburg Physical Education Center. Entry fee is $1. Stillman Footc members free. All runners will receive Axtell painter caps and turkeys will be awarded in seven divisions.

K Of C Free Throw Set

The Knights of Columbus basketball free-throw championship will get under way in the north country on Dec. 12, when the Most Reverend Joseph L. Tierney Council No. 340 holds the local contest in the Middle School Gym at 1 p.m.

There are eight distinct contests, four for girls and four for boys in age groups from 11 to 14 years. Applications are now available in each of the schools and should be obtained at the school of officials as soon as possible. Birth certificates will not be required for the initial contests, but the date of birth must be verified by school records.

Bears Split Opening Week

BY BILL SHORT
The Potsdam College Bears split the opening week of their current men's ice hockey campaign, handing the Royal Military College of Canada a booming loss on Thursday night, then taking a very close loss at the hands of the University of Ottawa on Saturday.

A disallowed goal late in the third period thwarted a Potsdam comeback as the Bears dropped a 5-4 decision to the University of Ottawa. Two products of the Massena hockey program, Mike Hull and Steve Mailhot, each scored goals in the Potsdam cause, with Brian Battistoni of Saranac Lake also finding the range.

Denis Marcoux rounded out the scoring for the Bears, while Brett Lowe donated a pair of assists. Yves and Pierre Marcoux, Jim Tyo, Dan Williams and Battistoni all donated single assists to Potsdam's effort. Randy Spadaolini of Canton started in the Bears' crease and stopped 24 shots before an injury put him on the bench. He was replaced midway through the third period by Randy Brown of Winthrop, who turned aside five shots.

Bears Win Opener
The Potsdam College icers raised the curtain on their season with an impressive 9-3 win over the Royal Military College of Kingston, Ontario on Thursday evening in Maxcy Hall.

Freshman forward Dave Fess of Rochester led the way for coach John Horan's Bears, and for all scorers, with a three-goal performance. The Marcoux brothers, Denis, Pierre and Yves, all found room to slip the puck into the net one time each, while Hull and Mike Blair each tallied once. Pat Foster also lit the lamp once, and Tom Blair picked up three assists. Goalie Brown stopped 23 shots while protecting the Potsdam crease.

Run For Cancer Set For Nov. 14

CANTON — The 12 hour run-a-thon for the American Cancer Society will be held Nov. 14. From noon to midnight, teams of 18 or less runners will be running once around the clock to exercise their health for the benefit of the American Cancer Society.

The run-a-thon will be held at the St. Lawrence University Augsburg Gymnasium indoor track.

For more information on the Run for Life, contact Lisa at 379-6074 or call the Cancer Society at 386-8249.
