The Annual Christmas bazaar, sponsored by the North Stockholm United Methodist Women, will be held in the North Stockholm Church Hall at Knapps Station on Nov. 21, starting at 10 a.m. There will be a food table featuring homemade soup, fancy work, homemade candy, Christmas gifts and a white elephant table.

A luncheon will be served from 11:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. for $2. Coffee and doughnuts will be available throughout the day.

Election of officers for 1982 was held at the regular meeting of the UMW Nov. 4 at the home of Mrs. Pauline Stevens, Knapps Station. Re-elected were: president, Lizabeth Cheney; vice-president, Martha Chase; secretary, Irene Taylor; treasurer, Aletha Greene; Christian Fellowship, Eva Dean; Christian Global Involvement, Bernice Baxter; Christian Social Involvement, Mildred Jenkins; committee on nominations: Eva Dean, Clara Baxter and Dorothy Johnson.

The next regular meeting of the North Stockholm UMW will be held at the home of Irene Taylor, Knapps Station Road, at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 2 with Irene Taylor and Lizabeth Cheney, co-hostesses.

Cub Scout Leaders

Plan 'Pow Wow' Nov. 21

The Cub Scout Leaders Pow Wow of the St. Lawrence Council, Boy Scouts of America, slated for Nov. 21 at the Canton Middle School on State Street in Canton starting at 10 a.m. and ending at 4 p.m., will be a "Showplace of Cub Scouting."

The pow wow, designed for all Cub Scout Leaders, pack committee members and interested parents, will demonstrate pack administration, Webelos den activities, skits and puppets, games and crafts, according to Herb Haven of Canton and pow wow chairman.

Cub packs participating are asked to bring ceremony equipment and completed crafts for exhibits at the "Ideas Extravaganza". Skill and fun games will be demonstrated on the "Midway" run by Mel Gardner of Winthrop.

Registration for the pow wow is due at the Council Service Center by Nov. 18.

Also to be covered at the pow wow is a "Den Chief Training Conference" led by Bill McGuire, scoutmaster of Troop 47 of Massena. The "how" and "why" of successful leadership as a den chief on a Cub pack will be covered as well as the den chief's job, song leading, contests, skits, games and guidance for the several parts of a den meeting. Registration for this is also due on the 18th.

A Blue and Gold Banquet will be held for all those attending.

The annual bazaar and luncheon sponsored by the Raymondville United Methodist Women of the Raymondville United Methodist Church will be held on Nov. 21, starting at 10 a.m. at the Raymondville Community Hall. There will also be a food sale.

A craft meeting for the Sleepy Hollow Gophers Home Bureau will be held at 1 p.m. Nov. 24 at the home of Mrs. Marsha Chapman, Brookdale.

The Brookdale Wesleyan Church will receive the annual self-denial offering for World Missions on Nov. 22. Each person is being asked to give one day's income for this worthwhile cause.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Norfolk Wesleyan Church will meet at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 21 at the Washington School, Ogdensburg.

Mrs. John (Catherine) Gang, Sober St., Norfolk, has returned home after being a patient in Saranac Lake General Hospital for 12 days.

Lawrence Wells, Brookdale Road, underwent major surgery at the Saranac Lake General Hospital at Saranac Lake on Nov. 4.

Kelly Michael Creighton, Garden

Grove, Calif.; and a friend, Steve Reynolds, Sodus, spent the weekend at the home of Kelly Creighton's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alton (Helen) LaRue, Brookdale Road.

Mrs. Mabel Cheney, formerly of West Stockholm, who now resides in the Moongate Nursing Home, Canton, fell and broke her hip. She is a patient in the Canton-Potsdam Hospital. Mrs. Cheney observed her 100th birthday on March 19.

Mrs. Beulah Worley, 9 River St., Norwood, observed her 78th birthday on Nov. 11.

Marion Buckley and her daughter, Elizabeth Goodrich, both of Brasher Falls, spent one evening this past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton (Helen) LaRue, Brookdale Road.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. (Gail) Jenkins and Terrie, Knapps Station Road, Nov. 7, were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. (Mildred) Jenkins, Knapps Station Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Carole) Moulton Sr., Robert Jr. and David, Sanfordville. The occasion was in honor of Mildred Jenkins' birthday Nov. 6.

Historians Grace O'Brien, Brasher

Falls; Elizabeth Winn, Lawrence; Mildred Jenkins, Stockholm; and Madeline Gray of the museum at Helena met with the fourth grade teachers at the St. Lawrence Central School, Brasher Falls recently to help give assistance to the teachers on teaching local history for fourth grade social studies. The subject is mandated by the state, and is a part of their curriculum on family life, school life, and other changes throughout the years up to the present time.

Mrs. Bertha Hale fell at her home early Sunday morning, Nov. 8, while coming downstairs and received a broken left ankle. She was taken to the Canton-Potsdam Hospital via Norfolk Rescue Squad, and is in Room 310. She underwent surgery on Monday.

The Annual Christmas party for the members of "The Little Birthday Club" was held at Sabad's Restaurant, Norfolk, Nov. 4. There will be no more meetings of the club until March.

The regular meeting of the Democratic Club of the Town of Stockholm will be held at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 17 in the Municipal Building, Winthrop.

Garth Munson, Pickle St. Road, underwent surgery in the Canton-Potsdam Hospital on Nov. 10.

KEEP IT LIGHT.

If your eyeglasses don't feel light on your head, they're probably not made of Optyl. Optyl is the only frame material developed exclusively for the manufacture of eyewear. A frame made in Optyl can be fashionably delicate yet functionally durable and up to 30% lighter in weight than frames made of conventional plastics. So keep it light.
