The Board of Trustees of the Village of Potsdam will hold two public hearings to consider a proposed application to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for Urban Development Action Grant (UDAG) funds. The proposed application would assist in construction of twenty-five single family new housing units over a 3 1/2 year period.
The public hearing schedule is as follows:
7:00 PM, Monday, November 30, 1981, Civic Center, Potsdam, NY. (This hearing is to describe the general purpose of the UDAG program.)
7:30 PM, Monday, November 30, 1981, Civic Center, Potsdam, NY. (This hearing is to describe the proposed application.)
Action grants are intended to provide assistance to distressed cities so that new private investment can be stimulated. Applications must be submitted in conformance with and at times established by federal regulations.
All interested citizens and parties are urged to attend.
Sanford D. Dewey
Village Clerk
