Mayfield News

Our thanks to Arabella Boyer and her committee, for the delicious turkey (and all the trimmings), served at Mayfield Hall, on Nov. 28. The occasion being the November covered dish supper, and the annual Thanksgiving dinner.

Gordon and Mary Daby were entertained by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Covey, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Daby, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon C. Daby and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daby. The occasion being Gordon and Mary's 50th wedding anniversary. The Daby family wishes to thank all who made this a most pleasant occasion.

Our best wishes for a steady recovery to our Mayfield neighbors who are hospital patients: Mary Covert, Mabel LaPlante and Nina Kingsley, who is a patient in Good Samaritan Hospital, Watertown.

The November birthdays, which were noted at the covered dish supper, are: Deatta Cotter, Belva Seymour, Leone Carson, Alice Bartlett, Ethel Wells, Priscilla Tryon, Lena Waite, Willard Robinson, Floyd Davis, Marian Pelton, Betty Kimber, Laura Remington and Mabel LaPlante.

November wedding anniversaries are: Gordon and Mary Daby and Darrell and Ruth Middlemiss.

There will be bingo at Mayfield Hall, on Nov. 28, at 1:30 p.m.

Sandstone Senior Citizens

Over 40 Sandstone Senior Citizens enjoyed a shopping trip to the Pyramid Mall in Flatburgh Nov. 13. The arts and crafts show gave them many new ideas.

Audrey Champney, caterer for some of their dinners, is in Saranac Lake hospital undergoing treatment. She expects to be home soon.

Jane Charleston, member of the nutrition department is in Canton-Potsdam Hospital for tests. The senior citizens all wish her well.

Nina Kingsley is in the House of the Good Samaritan, Watertown, for observation and tests.

Helen Butterfield is in Canton-Potsdam Hospital for treatment and expects to be back in her Midtown Apartment soon.

Anna Edwards has returned from Canton-Potsdam Hospital and is improving every day.

Several are on the improving list — Geneva Knight, Lena Wadleigh, Mary Gibson, Rena Frederick, Earl Richards and Dick Belmore. Many more seniors have had bouts with the flu and colds but are doing fine now.

Blood pressures are being taken at Midtown Apartments. Watch the paper for dates and time.

Smiles are more catching than colds. Healthy, happy Thanksgiving to everyone.

Pay Phone Bills At Perry's Grocery

New York Telephone customers in the Norwood area will be able to pay their telephone bills at Perry's Grocery, 38 Spring St., Norwood, beginning Nov. 17.

"This is for the convenience of customers who would rather pay their phone bills in person," said company manager, Al Simpkins.

Perry's Grocery will accept payment of phone bills on Tuesday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., on Friday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

This new location for in-person bill payment replaces the Barlow's Radio and TV, which took payments through Oct. 30.

The Norwood Library will be closed Nov. 26, Thanksgiving Day, and will reopen as usual on Saturday, Nov. 28.

The regular St. Lawrence County health screening clinic for adults will be held in the library the morning of Dec. 3.

Society of Elizabethtown, was a guest at the regular meeting of the Stockholm Historical Organization (SHO) Nov. 12. She lives in Keene Valley.

The next regular meeting will be held at 6 p.m., Dec. 10 in the Municipal Building, Winthrop.

Mrs. Ruth Hartson, second vice president of the Women's Republican Club of the Town of Stockholm, presided at the regular meeting Nov. 16 in the absence of the president, Mrs. Jan Scott, who was in Albany. It was voted to hold the annual spring luncheon on April 24 at Chris Fay's Restaurant, Potsdam.

Mrs. Hartson was appointed as historian of the club to replace Mrs.

Clara Curtis, who resigned. There will be no meetings held during the months of December, January and February. The next regular meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. March 15 in the Municipal Building.

Mrs. Janet Brownell, Richland, Washington, is vacationing at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ethel Dorothy, West Stockholm.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Ray (Grace) Moulton, Vergennes, Vt., this past week. Mrs. Moulton has several relatives in the Stockholm and Madrid areas.

Beaded tea service and candle holders will be taught to the members of the Sleepy Hollow Gophers Home Bureau at 1 p.m. Nov. 24 at the home of Marsha Chapman, Brookdale. For information on the leaded tea service, members may call Marsha Chapman at 384-3224.

A business meeting of the Sleepy Hollow Gophers Home Bureau will be held at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 1 at the home of Mrs. Janice Kelsey, Knapps Station Road. A covered dish supper will be served. Each person is to bring a covered dish to pass, their own table service, and a homemade Christmas gift to be exchanged.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard (Sandra) Tryon, Brookdale, have returned home after a week's vacation. They visited Mrs. Tryon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tanner, Ovid, and at the home of Mrs. Tryon's sister, Mrs. Elinor Rancitelli and family, Columbus, Ohio.

Attorney Jerry Leek, South Colton Road, was the guest speaker Nov. 15 in the Norwood United Church of Christ in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Eric Harblin, who was on a week's vacation.

A Harvest Festival sponsored by the St. Lawrence County Pomona Grange will be held at the Madrid Hepburn Library on Nov. 28 starting at 2 p.m. There will be a display of harvest produce and sale of produce, baked goods, crafts and canned goods. A covered dish supper will start at 6 p.m. Please bring a covered dish and own table service. The Lord's Supper will be observed Sunday morning, Nov. 29, at the 10 a.m. Sunday morning worship hour in the Norwood United Methodist Church, the First Sunday in Advent. There will also be a United Methodist Student Day offering.
