disciplined. It is a pleasure working here," says Sullivan.

When calling the main office of the high school one will hear the voice of Charlotte Moore or Jean LaPlante, the two full-time secretaries in the main office.

Mrs. Moore, a graduate of the Lisbon Central School, lives with her husband and daughter in their country home on Bucks Bridge Road. Her husband, James, is employed as Food Service Director for the Canton-Potsdam Hospital. Mrs. Moore has been employed as secretary in the main office for the past five years.

Mrs. LaPlante, of Knappa Station Road, a graduate of NNCSS, began working in the main office in February of 1979. Her husband, Royal, teaches at Massena Central School. They are the parents of four children.

Charles Hager, in his tenth year as Principal of Norwood Elementary School, resides at 18 Maple St. in Norwood with his wife, Linda, and their two daughters.

He has organized a part-time program for talented students in the elementary school, was instrumental in implementing a continuous progress K-6 mathematics curriculum emphasizing sequential acquisition of basic skills, and could catch glimpses of Charlie hurrying to the play area wearing his cut-offs and carrying paint and brushes this past summer as he prepared a boat for students to enjoy on the playground.

Prior to his position as principal in Norwood he taught sixth grade and was elementary supervisor in South New Berlin Central School in South Berlin, N.Y.

He studied for his bachelors degree at the University of Rochester and his masters degree at Oneonta State University. He continued his education in administration and supervision at Colgate University, Utica College of Syracuse University, and Cortland State University.

Linda Hager, a graduate of NNCSS, has been employed as the full-time secretary at the Norwood Elementary School for the past nine years.

All four secretaries, Mrs. Hager, Mrs. Hazen, Mrs. Moore, and Mrs. LaPlante are members of the St. Lawrence Association of Educational Secretaries. This association involves all school districts within St. Lawrence County. Members meet quarterly to share ideas, goals and interests.

The Norwood Jaynees will sponsor a Thanksgiving disco dance from 7 to 10 p.m. on Nov. 27 at the Norwood Municipal Building. Admission is $1. Youth in grades four through twelve are invited to the dance.

The Norfolk Time Savers Home Bureau will hold their annual Christmas party on Dec. 3 at the Norfolk Hepburn Library. A covered dish dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. and everyone is asked to bring their own table service, a dish to pass, and a $3

Christmas will be observed in the United Church with the opening of the season on the first Sunday in Advent, Nov. 29, with the lighting of the first candle of the wreath. Also, on Dec. 3, the administrators of the board of the church will meet at 7:30 p.m. A family breakfast, hosted by the men of the church, will be held Dec. 20 at 8:45 a.m.

The ladies of the United Church will meet at noon Dec. 3 in the church dining room for a Christmas dinner and program. Meat will be furnished. Bring covered dish and table service and a gift to be given to nursing home residents or the needy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dawley had a delicious turkey supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jandrew, Grasse River Apartments, Madrid on Wednesday night.

Little George Lane had the misfortune to have the chicken pox come to his house. Grandma Peacock helped with the misery of the itchy things by spending a couple of days with him.

Larry Pryce and Bryan Watson were among the 63 firemen to attend a seminar on rural firefighting tactics at Canton ATC Nov. 7-8.

Miss Katherine Fay and Alice Dixon left for Florida this week. Alice will assist with the driving and will return to Madrid later. Miss Fay will spend the winter months in Florida.

The First Presbyterian Church of Dalley Ridge elders met and suggested that Rev. Jack M. Wells conduct worship and preach every other Sunday in the Dalley Ridge church. On other Sundays, Rev. Wells would work with the children and possibly the young people of the congregation. Worship services would be held at 9:30 a.m. and on the alternate Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. with the younger group. Services are scheduled for Nov. 29 at 9:30 a.m., marking the beginning of the Advent Season. On Dec. 6, children will meet at 2:00 to prepare for the Christmas season. Services again will be on Dec. 13, 9:30 and on Saturday, Dec. 19 at 7:00 p.m. a Christmas program is to be presented. Christmas Eve services of scripture, carols and prayers. Again on Dec. 27 services will be held at 9:30 a.m.

Rescue Squad took Mrs. James (Marie) Hayes to Canton-Potsdam Hospital where she is under observation.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Osway Jr. are Mr. and Mrs. William Bott, their children Dawn and Sunshine, and Mrs. Jill Mumford, all from Virginia. The women are Mrs. Osway's sisters.

gift. Guests are welcome.

St. Phillip's Episcopal Guild will hold their Christmas Bazaar at the Episcopal Church in Norwood from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Dec. 5. Lunch will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Vegetable soup, pea soup, assorted sandwiches, cake, ice-cream sundaes, and beverage will be for sale.

Lyra Chapter No. 230 Order of the Eastern Star will hold their regular meeting on Dec. 2 at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Hall.

There will be election of officers and annual reports will be given at this meeting.

A Christmas party will be enjoyed following the meeting. Those attending are asked to bring a gift to exchange. Refreshments will be served.

For those with relatives in the armed services stationed overseas, or who wish to mail holiday greetings and packages to others living in foreign countries, it is not too early to begin mailing plans, according to Norwood Postmaster Sheila Hamilton.
