

Mayfield News

Margaret Edwards returned home from a tour of Greece. She was gone about two weeks and reports that the scenery, the ruins of the ancient civilization and the culture of the modern cities all contributed to an interesting and educational trip. She stopped in Rochester on the way home with her daughter and family.

Clarence Cooklin enjoyed a visit from his son Earl, his wife Joyce and their three daughters, Angelle, Neocola and Lisa of Hastings, Mich. Also visiting were Joyce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Billiveau of Leominster, Mass. The families had an early Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. Cooklin's sister-in-law and husband, the Dick Bensons of Hannawa Falls.

Our next coffee hour is at 10 a.m. on Nov. 17.

On Thursday evening at 7 p.m. there will be a dance to which we invite any senior citizens who would enjoy coming.

The monthly dinner will be on Monday evening (this time only) Nov. 22 at 5:30 p.m. Meat will be furnished, but please bring either vegetables or salad and your own place setting.

Lillian Jay is in the Canton-Potsdam Hospital. Our best wishes go to her.

The next Easter Seal meeting will be Nov. 17, at 1:30 p.m. No money is involved at any time, only our spare time to help with the recreational kits.

During the winter months, the meetings will be held at the apartment of Mrs. Mary Daby, Mayfield, Apt. 4A2. For further information, call Mrs. Daby at 265-2113.

Contestants Wanted For 'Miss Charm'

New York State Miss Charm Scholarship Pageant is looking for girls to represent this state at the upcoming State Preliminary pageant to be held in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. in March 1983. There are five age divisions, little miss (4-6), miss ideal (7-9), junior miss (10-12), teen (13-16) and miss (17-25). Each young lady will compete in a private interview, talent, evening gown, and sportswear. Awards will include savings bonds, prizes and awards as well as trophies, crowns and state sashes to each winner in her age division. State winners will be eligible to compete in the national pageant being held in Washington, D.C. in July.

As a youth development program in its sixth year, it encourages community and state participation through civic and social organizations by giving of their time and talents to charitable functions.

For more details, mail a long stamped, self-addressed envelope to: Miss New York Charm Scholarship Pageant, Patricia E. Peetz, Director, 57 Crestline Drive, Ballston Spa, N.Y., 12020.
