Centennial Choir To Perform In Massena

MASSENA — The Massena Public Library will host the Centennial Choir of Cornwall, Ontario, in a concert to be presented at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 6 at the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church of Massena, 189 Main St.

This is the first American concert for the choir, 50 singers from all walks of life under the leadership of Brian McCartney, conductor, and Dorothy Sullivan, assistant conductor. Ian Brodie, general manager of the group, will act as master of ceremonies.
Admission to this concert of secular and sacred music will be $3, payable at the door.

Mayfield News

We were saddened this past week by the death of our neighbor, Beatrice Brooks.

The following residents entered the Canton-Potsdam Hospital during the past week and we wish each of them a rapid recovery and return home: Genevieve McGhee, Doris Bowers, Geneva Knight, Marlon Pelton and Emma Peets. Lillian Jay is still a patient there and we are glad to report that Ruth Launer is now at home.

Nina Frederick and Irene Eastman attended a Telephone Company Life Member Pioneer Christmas luncheon at the St. Lawrence Inn in Canton on Nov. 18.

Retha Boprey visited her daughter in Liverpool, during the past week.

Agnes Williams spent the weekend with her son, Wayne Williams and family in West Stockholm and attended worship services with them at the West Stockholm Methodist Church.

Alma LaPoint and Nina Frederick attended the St. Lawrence County American Legion Auxiliary meeting in Madrid on Nov. 18.

Weight Watchers will meet at 10 a.m. on Nov. 30.

An important business meeting will be held at the center at 1:30 p.m. on Dec. 8. Card party follows immediately thereafter.

Our best wishes to Ethel Wells, who underwent eye surgery on Wednesday.

Debra Drive Seniors

Eleanor Cook would like to thank everyone for all the cards and things people did for her while in the hospital for so long. She would like to thank the doctors and nurses on the first floor and Msgr. William Argy.

Frances Sears went to Rochester with her sister because of sickness in her family.

Our sincere sympathy to Margaret Dutton on the death of her son-in-law, Leonard Trimm in Niagara Falls.

Our Christmas bazaar and food sale will be on Dec. 10 and 11 in the community room from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Penny bingo the last Sunday of the month.

Happy birthday to all who celebrate birthdays in November. Happy Thanksgiving to all.

Denora Paro had visitors on Tuesday night. Her son, Paul, Jr., his wife Betty, granddaughter Diane and great-grandchildren Mark, Chris and Kimberly.

Maude Russell has gone to Florida for the winter.

May Russell went to visit her mother-in-law Genevieve and Aunt Delia May over the weekend.

Nutrition Program Menu For Elderly

The Potsdam nutrition center for the elderly is located in Midtown Apartments, Munson Street in the village, serving lunches at noon each weekday. Reservations are appreciated at 265-2870.

This week's menu is:
Wednesday — Beef biscuit, roll, gravy, cranberry salad, mixed vegetables, biscuit and butter, choice of fresh fruit, milk.
No lunches will be served on Thursday and Friday due to the Thanksgiving holidays. Have a happy holiday.

Monday — Hash and bacon, sliced beets, cole slaw, rolls and butter, apricots, milk.
Tuesday — Chicken and biscuits, tossed salad, squash, biscuits and butter, blueberry pie, milk.

Fresh or water-pack fruit is available daily.

ed their "Town and Country Hairstyling" business to Canton; the Canton shop will be open Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Local people will be served all day Tuesday and Thursday and Saturday mornings.

Colton Neighborhood Center is now taking applications for the Christmas program. Income eligible people can apply by calling outreach aide Norene Randall at 262-2380 between 9 and 10 a.m., before Dec. 3. Toys and children's clothing are still needed and please call the above number in the morning or Arlene Gotham at 262-2759 after 6 p.m.

The Christmas program this year will be held on Dec. 15, 16 and 17 at the South Colton Community Center.

At the November meeting of St. Lawrence County Council of Senior Citizens Clubs, plans were made for the annual Christmas party. It will be held at the Presbyterian Center on Dec. 4 with dinner at 5:30 p.m. and dancing afterward. Cost to each person is $3 payable with reservation and reservations are to be made with Corinne Covey, Rt. 4, Potsdam not later than Nov. 27. A gift exchange will be held with packages to be marked "man" or "woman" and the dinner price covers the evening of dancing. People wishing to come only for the dance will be asked to pay $1.50 to defray expenses.

Bill Rutley is helping Sherm Ayers gussy up the front porch; to date they have installed a new floor, put windows in all 'round, and are replacing shingles — now, if only the weatherman will cooperate.
