Facts of Law

BY RICHARD V. MANNING
 Attorney-at-law

A marriage of a person under the statutory minimum age may become completely valid and binding when the underage party reaches the age of consent.

A BEQUEST is a gift by will of personal property.

Serving on a jury in ancient England would not have been as simple a task as serving on a jury today. There, if the jurors were found to have made an erroneous decision, they were subject to heavy penalties.

"The equal right of all men to the use of the land is as clear as their equal right to breathe the air..."
 —Henry George

An animal on the street after dark in Berea, Ohio must display a red tail light. It's the law.
