Over one hundred seniors enjoyed a most delicious Thanksgiving dinner in the Midtown Apartments community room Nov. 16, at the nutrition dinner. The meal consisted of turkey with dressing, mashed potatoes, gravy, squash, cranberry relish, milk and pumpkin pie.

Mary Gibson of Midtown Apartments is in the Canton-Potsdam hospital for treatment.

Anna Edwards is somewhat improved and coming to the nutrition dinner.

Hazel E. Smith of Midtown Apartments moved to Utica, to be near her son. Her new address is Apt. 209-A Kneem Apts., 33 Scott St., Utica, 13501. This is a senior citizens housing project.

Mayfield News

Yvonne Bonno's son came from Rochester and took his mother home for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Twila Cole spent the week with her niece, Syble Mose in Syracuse.

Louise Spotswood and Mildred Talcott hosted the Thanksgiving dinner at the Center on Nov. 22. They served an "overflow" crowd and all of us are grateful to them and their committee for the pleasant evening.

Father Argy will lead our memory tree service on Dec. 6 at 2:30 p.m. The money collected for this will be given to the local rescue squad.

On Dec. 8 at 1:30 p.m. we will have a short but important business meeting, followed by our monthly card party from 2 to 4 p.m. Bring your friends for this activity.

On Dec. 11 at 12 noon, June Keely will host the December covered dish dinner. Please bring a dish to pass and your own table service. At 1:30 that same day those interested in playing Bingo will meet as usual. Friends are invited.

On Dec. 13 at 7:30 p.m. the choir from Norwood-Norfolk School, conducted by Gail Gage will present a Christmas program for us at the Center. And on Dec. 14 at 2:15 the fifth grade from Potsdam Elementary School under the direction of Jane Cryder will sing carols at our hall. We hope you will all support these young people as they share their Christmas spirit with us.
