

Patchwork: West Potsdam Area News

BY MARY ANN MILLER

This is being done on the evening of Thanksgiving Day. It's 37 degrees outside with cloudy skies and windy with no snow. Our family had our Thanksgiving Wednesday evening in Clinton at my sister Nancy and her husband Ed Crane's family home. We did the whole show that evening so I could return and get this job taken care of. It worked out perfectly. Nancy's house is the typical farm house, yet she had 37 for dinner. Ed got four by 16 sheets of plywood and by moving much furniture about managed to get the table zig-zagging through several rooms. It was rather impressive and it is the first time I had dinner with my family and didn't see all of them. We were all at the same table but in which room? Really fun. Returning to West Potsdam on Thanksgiving Day is rather different. I felt like I owned the highway. For there was almost no other traffic. Great way to travel.

The West Potsdam Methodist Church is holding services now at the fire station. The service starts at 11 a.m. with the Rev. Alan Barnes and wife Gladys officiating. The two are offering exciting services with a great deal of musical talent.

The memory tree will stand on the church lawn again this year. Plans are being made for a ceremony to go along with the lighting of the tree. If you have a name or names you'd like remembered, you can send $1 per name to Kay Thompson, Rt. 2, Potsdam, and she'd be glad to take care of it.

Lillian Heathen is in the Potsdam Hospital after a fall in her home in which she broke her hip. I heard Lillian had fallen and had to wait several hours before someone discovered her plight.

Since I've arrived home I've done some calling around to see what different families managed to get together. I'll start with the Pierce families on the Canton Road. This is rather involved but it does involve the Percies. It seems Inez Pierce Crump and her husband Arnold were up from Maryland, but had to return before Thanksgiving. So Royal and Anna Pierce had an early Thanksgiving on Tuesday evening with Inez and Arnold, Ben and Marjorie Pierce, Rodney and Louise Pierce, and Margaret and Lee Pierce for a steak dinner. Anna thought steak would be better as all would have their fill of turkey later.

Royal and Anna had a large Thanksgiving Day dinner party and this time it was ham. Anna's sister, Mary King of Durham, Conn.; Mary's daughter, Sandra Booth and her daughter Gail from Portland, Conn.; David Suckow, Roy's sister Marjorie and husband Orson Fry of Canton; and another sister, Thelma Hill, also from Canton, had the ham dinner. Now the turkey dinner was expected to be Saturday when Anna's daughter Mary Jane and husband William and daughter Karen were to arrive from Cornwall, Ont.

Anna's Christmas cactus is again outdoing itself. The plant is well over 40 years old and is huge. It now has over 100 buds on it so far for the season. Anna just keeps it in a window facing Canton and waters it. After blooming, she moves the plant to less sunshine and waters it weekly. I know of none with a plant that old.

Dorothy and Kenneth Friedel filled their home with family members for Thanksgiving. Bruce and Sheila Friedel and children; Spencer and Susan Blanchard and children; Ken and Betsy Friedel and children; Judy and Ernie LaRose and family, and daughter Marjorie and Charlie Tupper made up the family present.

Helen Pierce and daughters Debbie and Amy spent their Thanksgiving day in Detroit with friends.

Weldon and Shirley Lumley and daughters including "Heidi" their AFS student from Iceland had their Thanksgiving dinner with Evelyn Lumley. Lum's sister, Jean Walker and children drove up from Water-Down to share the day.

"Heidi" had her photo taken with turkey as in Iceland turkeys are imported and costly. The Lumleys had the evening dinner at their home with Shirley's sister, Barbara and her husband Claude and son Brian Burdick, in for another dinner. The Burdicks, with daughter Pat and children, had turkey dinner.

Ed and Sue Powell and daughter Sarah, who now weighs about nine pounds, had Thanksgiving dinner at their home with Ed's mother Ruth, his Brother Wayne and his aunt Pearl as dinner guests.

Ardis Barnes had Thanksgiving dinner at her home, celebrating with daughters Twila and husband Richard Hayes and children and daughter Cindy. I really think Ardis had her heart more into the St. Lawrence winning football team and hoping they all had a good meal. Ardis works at St. Lawrence.

Alton and Jacqueline Swingle had a nice Thanksgiving with the entire family at home. There was Dr. Cindy from Massena, Carol and daughter Heather, Melissa who manages the Pizza Hut in Potsdam, Holly who is a student at Morrisville, Beth, who is a reporter for "The Mirror Recorder" in Stamford, and Jenny who is at home. Alton said it was a happy family gathering.

4-H Club Makes Advent Calendars

On Nov. 20 and 27, the Sinclair Corners 4-H Club made Advent calendars for the Neighborhood Center. The center will put calendars in Christmas baskets for families.

A Christmas party will be held Dec. 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Sherburne. Each member is to bring a handmade gift to exchange.

Ray and Margaret Harrington had Thanksgiving at home with daughter Julie and husband John White and children John Jr. and Jennifer from Sanfordville; daughter Nancy Gereich and children Nathan, and Alicia from Potsdam. Their son John and wife Pat and family now live in Irvine, Calif., near Los Angeles. They shared their Thanksgiving dinner with Al and Kathrine Bromling. Ray and Margaret will visit John and Pat after Christmas and then on to Florida.

Dean and Cindy Talcott had a fun Thanksgiving. Since Dean had to work, Cindy took the children, Kara, Kelley and Kevin for dinner to Norwood at her brother Dick and Eileen's home. Eileen's family has an illness that took her to Florida, so Dick did the whole meal himself. He showed his skills to his parents, Dorothy and Philip Cook, and brother David and wife Judy and Renee Cook. Dick not only did the dinner, he also celebrated a happy birthday.

Dean was given a meal to remember by Ag Given, Kathryn Sullivan, and Midge Hearny, when they heard he'd be missing his dinner.

Dean joined Cindy and the children later in the day for dessert with brother Stuart and Sally and family. The head of the Talcott family, Mildred, had dinner with Stuart and Sally and family.

Last but not least was a phone call late in the evening after the Clarkson hockey game. It was from Ardie Richardson. She and Dewey Pierce had our tickets for the game. The arena wasn't full, but her seats and row were over-crowded. The game was not the best played hockey. She did her Thanksgiving dinner with her parents, Herbert and Dorothy Pooley as guests and she forgot to tell me that David Wright has just returned from the southern tier with a deer. Details on his deer will start next week's Patchwork.
