Homemade Foods Highlight Dinner

NORWOOD — One hundred and eighty persons attended the annual Thanksgiving dinner prepared by the students of the 3-4 Team, held in the 3-4 Team Room of the Norwood Elementary School Nov. 19.

This very special national holiday was also very special in their room. It was the culmination of a social studies unit on Colonial life. All of the food for the feast was homemade by the students. It consisted of vegetable soup, bread, butter, ice cream and oatmeal cookies. There were also relishes and pickles.

Mothers and grandmothers assisted the students in making the bread, cookies and ice cream.

Some of the students dressed in an appropriate costume for the occasion. Pictures, made by the students, adorned the walls of the room, depicting the lifestyle of the Colonial period.

The three teachers of the 3-4 Team are: Mrs. Lorie Dunne, Mrs. Mary Grant and Mrs. Dawna Clark, and the two student teachers from Potsdam College are: Mrs. Kay Paradise and Miss Pat Hurley.
