

Patchwork: West Potsdam Area News

BY MARY ANN MILLER
265-6708

There is much talk of men hunting, Thanksgiving memories, Christmas shopping, and most of all the weather. Dec. 1 was a day to remember. It was a day like spring. The snow had disappeared and the sun made itself known and best of all the temperatures jumped right up to 60 degrees above zero.

Since my mother and I have signed up to take some workshops at the Cooperative Extension office and one class was to make pine cone baskets, we drove to Postwood Dec. 1 to collect pine cones. We walked on stony pine needles and saw the most lovely mosses and heard the most peaceful sounds of the pines. We also saw more empty beer bottles than a dump holds. Later in the afternoon and at home

Memory Tree Planned At Hopkinton Church

HOPKINTON — The Women's Fellowship of the Hopkinton Congregational Church is sponsoring its annual Christmas memory tree.

For each $1 contribution a light will shine in memory of a deceased loved one named by the contributor.

On Dec. 12 at 7 p.m., there will be a tree lighting ceremony held at the Congregational Church. Refreshments will be served following the lighting and dedication and the public is invited.

Anyone wishing to have a light shine, may contact Mrs. Edith Norman, R-3, Potsdam 13676, 328-4626.

Mom went out in the yard and returned with a handful of Johnny Jump-ups. Also discovered Helen Platen picked a bouquet of double bachelor buttons growing next to her garage the same day. Later I found two dandelions in my back yard.

Must remind everyone that the memory tree will again stand in the four corners of West Potsdam. For a light to shine in someone's memory you simply send $1 for each name to Kay Thompson, Rt. 2, Potsdam.

West Potsdam and Slab City has another business opening. Cindy Sullivan has opened her shop called "Cindy's Cut and Curl." The shop is located in her home in Slab City, the former LaBarge home.

The area now has three William Corbines. Shirley Corbine called to tell me son Bill and wife Arlene are the new parents of William Winfield III, born at 7:46 a.m. Nov. 27 at Canton-Potsdam Hospital. William weighed in at eight pounds and one half ounces. Mother and father and son are all doing just fine.

Oiga Wise and son Herbert had their nice Thanksgiving in Lockport with son James and wife Dianne and family. Returning home they picked up a Clarkson College student who had just flown to Syracuse from Pennsylvania from his Thanksgiving. The three had a nice chat and the rider got a ride right to his dorm. He had mentioned he knew daughter Mary Kathryn which was why Oiga called me. She had forgotten his name but had his gloves that he left in her car. So I called Mary Kathryn to ask her if she knew a fellow named "Steve" from Pennsylvania and she said: "Sure I do. Steve Bellwood and he was so happy cause he hitched back from Syracuse airport and got a ride right to his dorm. He couldn't believe it." And so the fellow will get his gloves returned. Small world.

Oiga had other things happen to her — in late September she flew to Mossy Rock, Wash. to visit her sister Olive Casaw. While she was there she and Olive drove to Forest Grove, Ore. to pay a special visit with the former Ella Patience Prall and now Ella Collins. She is formerly from West Stockholm where her mother was a preacher there.

Sunday, Nov. 28 Kathryn "Kitty" and Clifford Tolman of Larnard Street, Potsdam had the surprise of the year. They found themselves manipulated some and ended up at the West Potsdam firemen's hall to be greeted by family members and friends to celebrate their 42nd wedding anniversary. Fred Henderson was there and he met relatives he hadn't seen in many a year. People came from all over. Pearl Constance came the farthest from Philadelphia, Pa. The event was actually a family reunion in many a way.

A big three layer cake done by Cathy Williams not only celebrated 42 years for the Tolmans but also the 14th anniversary of Stewart and Dorothy Henderson. Fred's sister Carol Sherwin of Morristown was celebrating her happy birthday.

Mike LaRue had Thanksgiving dinner with his parents Shirley and Theron in Norwood and other family members.

Bill and Betty Brogan were dinner guests at the Town House with son Craig treating.

Ed's Garage is getting a new facelift. Ed has had the old gas pumps removed and put a new concrete section in that goes to the building. He's having new doors installed soon and changing from one to two stalls and the office is all spruced up. He still heats the place with the big wood furnace.

Apologies to Mary Berger and family. Mary's father, Patrick FitzPatrick of South Colton, passed away. I reported he was in serious condition in the Potsdam Hospital and didn't hear of his death until recently when Paul Bonno stopped by.

The West Potsdam firemen held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening at the fire station. It was also their regular election of officers meeting with 30 members attending.

After six years as chief, Bill Grant chose not to run for re-election. The new chief is Fred Henderson and his officers are David Wright, first assistant chief; Dick Grant, second assistant chief; Charlie Bates, third assistant chief; Ric Miller, secretary; Spencer Blanchard, treasurer; Ed LaFountain, assistant treasurer; and Bill Corbine, truck captain. Members of the board of directors are Bill Grant, Paul Bonno, Weldon Lumley and Lee Pierce.

West Potsdam will host "Essentials of Firemanship" at their station Jan. 5 at 7 p.m.

Fires reported for the month of November: Nov. 3, a truck accident on four corners; Nov. 20, uncontrolled burning for Ken Farrell; Nov. 23, R. Ramsey a chimney fire; and Nov. 19, accident on Rt. 11. A workbee is scheduled at the hall for Wednesday. The annual banquet to be held Dec. 11 was discussed. Members of the Hannawa fire department will prepare and serve the meal at West Potsdam's hall.

Gilbert Miller and Gay Fletcher returned from their hunting near the area of Naples. Gilbert brought home a doe. Not long after his return Willis Coleman invited him to hunt at the Stag Club. Gilbert got a croton horn.

Randy Merrick and a party consisting of Gordon Merrick, Ernie Headley, Ken Graves and Gordie Richards have been hunting in the Penn Yan area. Randy had to return home early after two days of hunting and he got a doe. No report on other members' luck. Randy had an interesting time to tell about that trip. He saw an all-white deer. It was pretty to look at and also startling.

David Wright, Ronnie Thern and Mike Hewlett hunted south of Mon-cello, David got a doe. The men were gone for three days and took their camper to stay in.

Last week I mentioned Anna Pierce's Christmas cactus being over 40 years old and still bearing over 10 flowers. I chatted with Helen Hosmer recently about plants. Helen, who by the way is in the Potsdam hospital following an accident, is now home and able to get about. She spent Thanksgiving with the Ralph Wakefields in West Stockholm. Helen has two Christmas cacti and each has a history. One belonged to her grandmother who died 63 years ago and the other plant belonged to her mother who died 58 years ago. Both plants are in bloom. For the fun of it the bloom on one plant were counted and there are 131 of them.

The regular monthly meeting of the Potsdam Zonta was held at the Town House Thursday evening. It was a dinner meeting. The business meeting was conducted by vice president Laura Patterson. Following the meal six new members were inducted into the club and each was presented with a long stemmed rose. The new members were Marie Breitenbach, Bonnie McNichol, Helen Phalen, Janet Gibbs, Pat McCabe and Donna Seymour. The evening was completed with lovely music provided by four Crane students.
