Midtown Notes

Alta Williams had a big surprise when her grandson, Mitchel Despaw of Houston, Texas, arrived for Christmas.

Margaret Pitcher had a lot of family visit her over Christmas weekend: Terry and Thelma from North Carolina; Randy and Kathie from Syracuse; Shirley, Elmer, Robin, Shawn, and great-granddaughter Rae Lynn from Oswego; and granddaughter Lisa Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clookey of Belchertown, Mass. and their daughter, Tammy, visited Donald's mother, Greba Clookey, for a few days.

Mabel McClellan spent Christmas weekend with her daughters in Massena and Raymondville.

Julia Griffin spent the holiday in Massena with her niece, Betty Moore, and family.

Les Howard was back in the Canton-Potsdam Hospital last week, but was expected home on Friday.

Welcome home to Hazel Sweeney after a long convalescence from hip surgery. We wish her nothing but good health in the New Year.

Sandstone Senior Citizens

Sandstone Senior Citizens birthday party is Jan. 9 at 2:30 p.m. in the Midtown Apartments community room. Ice cream, cake, and beverages will be served.

Condolences are extended to the family of Eleanor Perry of Norwood, who died very suddenly Christmas Day.

Mary Sullivan and Ann Rafferty, sisters, who live at Meadow East Apartments, had their Christmas dinner at the Town House restaurant. Their families live so far away, so they spent their Christmas together.

Edith Spears, coordinator of the St. Lawrence County Foster Grandparents Program, went to Syracuse by Flack bus Dec. 17 to bring presents to the family of her sister, Lisa Soccone. She was very thankful for the Flack bus serving the North Country while Greyhound drivers were on strike.

Everyone is glad to see Greyhound back in service. They are more convenient and the schedule is larger.

St. Lawrence County must be a great place to live as we don't receive all the bad weather and storms like other places do.
