Hopkinton Supports Change In APA Laws

HOPKINTON — At its Dec. 17 monthly meeting, the Hopkinton Town Board unanimously voted to join the Franklin County Board of Legislators in its support of the Adirondack Park Review Board's efforts to change the laws pertaining to the Adirondack Park Agency.

The Franklin County legislators voted its support of the review board's actions on Dec. 3.

In other matters, the board noted that the increase in taxes for the coming year amounts to some 2.04 percent, not the 21.2 percent as published in a local daily newspaper.

The board also decided to table action that would have named members of the town's planning board until the Jan. 14 regular meeting.

The yearly organizational meeting will be held in conjunction with the Jan. 14 meeting.
