On Feb. 26, Friday evening, 76 years ago the Parishville Grange Dramatic Club put on the play "Out In The Streets."

The cast of characters were:
Colonel Wayne — K. C. Riggs
Mrs. Wayne — Nellie Courser
Nina, their daughter — Pearl Campbell
Mrs. Bradford, Col. W.'s Sister —

ORACLE SOCIETY

Lianne Lebeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lebeau of R.D. 3, Potsdam, was named to the Oracle Society at Ithaca College for the 1984 spring semester.

Membership in the society is for students listed in the top 5 percent of the freshman class at the end of the fall semester or the top 10 percent at the end of the spring semester.

Ms. Lebeau is a psychology major at the college.

Nellie DeLancy
Minnie, her daughter — Marion Crowley
Solomon Davis — James Crowley
Matthew Davis, his son — Howard Faulkner
Dr. Medford, Nina's Lover — James Crowley
Policeman — Edgar Courser
Pete, the comical darkey — Will Crowley

After they lay the laughable farce "The Jealous Husband" was performed. Then a social dance followed with all proceeds going to the Grange.

How interesting to have a small theatre group in town.

If there is any interest from readers in forming such a group, just send your names to Helen Condon, Box 176, Parishville, and I will compile them and send a copy of the list to everyone who has included an address. You, in turn, can get in touch with the others and perhaps get something going.

Reading and performing plays can be a rewarding experience for all. There are many aspects to the theatre besides the actual performing, such as: make-up and hair styling, set making, costumes, choreography, music, lights, acting, directing, producing, advertising and much more. The avenues are endless.

The Ladies Aid Society of the United Methodist Church of Parishville will hold its January meeting at the home of Jane Daby at 7:30 on Jan. 10. Jill Exware will be the guest speaker and will show her slides of her mission's team in the Fiji Islands. Refreshments will be served. Janet Gibbs, clergywoman for the church, might be persuaded to tell some of the things that went on in Chicago last week when she attended meetings on Discrimination Issues Against Women as a representative from the Northern New York Conference of United Churches. Rev. Gibbs spent Jan. 2 and 3 at the conference.

The Parishville Town Board wishes to announce that the monthly town board meetings are held in the board room at the town hall every third Thursday of the month of 7:30 p.m. Townspeople are welcome to attend these meetings.

Pat Phippen, town clerk, wishes to announce that the town clerk's office will be open on Wednesday nights from 6-8 for tax services. Taxes can be paid up until Jan. 31 without penalty. This year the percentage rates have risen 1 1/2 percent. The month of February the interest will be 1 percent; March — 2 percent; April 3 percent and May 4 percent. In previous years the highest the interest went was 2 1/2 percent in May.

The United Methodist Church will be sponsoring a cafeteria type supper Jan. 23 at the Parishville Town Hall. There will be a free will offering. The dinner will start at 5:30 p.m.

Dr. McMurray Named To Teaching Post

Upstate Medical Center, Syracuse, has announced the appointment of Dr. Brian R. McMurray as a clinical instructor in the Department of Medicine. Dr. McMurray is specialist in internal medicine on the staff at Canton-Potsdam Hospital.

The appointment will allow Dr. McMurray to participate in the teaching program at Upstate and enable medical students and residents to observe his local practice on a rotating basis.

A graduate of St. Lawrence University and of the University of Cincinnati School of Medicine, Dr. McMurray served his internship and residency at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles. Cer-

Lisa Tebo, a 1984 graduate of PHCS has made the dean's list at ATC where she is majoring in accounting. Congratulations, Lisa!

ified by the American Board of Internal Medicine, he has been on the Canton-Potsdam Hospital staff since 1981. He serves on the Hospital Coronary Care Unit, Pharmacy, Infection Control, Blood Bank and Physician Recruitment committees.

Dr. McMurray says that "this appointment will assist me in my effort to keep up with the latest in medical center therapy, and also help in efforts to recruit more young physicians to our area."

Dr. McMurray resides at 23 College St., Canton; with his wife, Catherine, and one month old child, Heather. His office is at 11 Beal St., Potsdam.
