Congregation Beth El Joins Council

At a recent board meeting Potsdam's Interfaith Community Services Council welcomed a sixth local religious group, Congregation Beth El to membership. Representing Beth El on the board are Bobbie and Ed Gordon. The Council, formed this past summer, is also supported by St. Mary's Church, First Presbyterian Church, American Baptist Church, Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, and Potsdam Society of Friends (Quakers).

The Interfaith Council's community worker, James Hendershot, is on call at 265-2028 for families and individuals in emergency situations where there is need for such things as food, shelter, transportation, fuel, clothing, etc. All Potsdam area pastors, religious group leaders, other helping-service professionals, as well as concerned individuals, are encouraged to make referrals through Hendershot. Council services are offered on a community-wide basis to anyone in need. Religious affiliation is not a factor.

Likewise, community volunteer support is welcomed. Donations to the food cupboard, for instance, can be taken to any member church, or offered by calling Hendershot. There is also a present need for volunteer drivers to help with transportation where health services or other assistance is essential.

Any Potsdam area religious group wishing information about Council participation is invited to contact any one of the board of directors' executive committee: Edward Boyd 265-6761, Jean Forget 265-2446, Gary Hoose 265-8258, or Sister Eunice Lalonde 265-6840.
