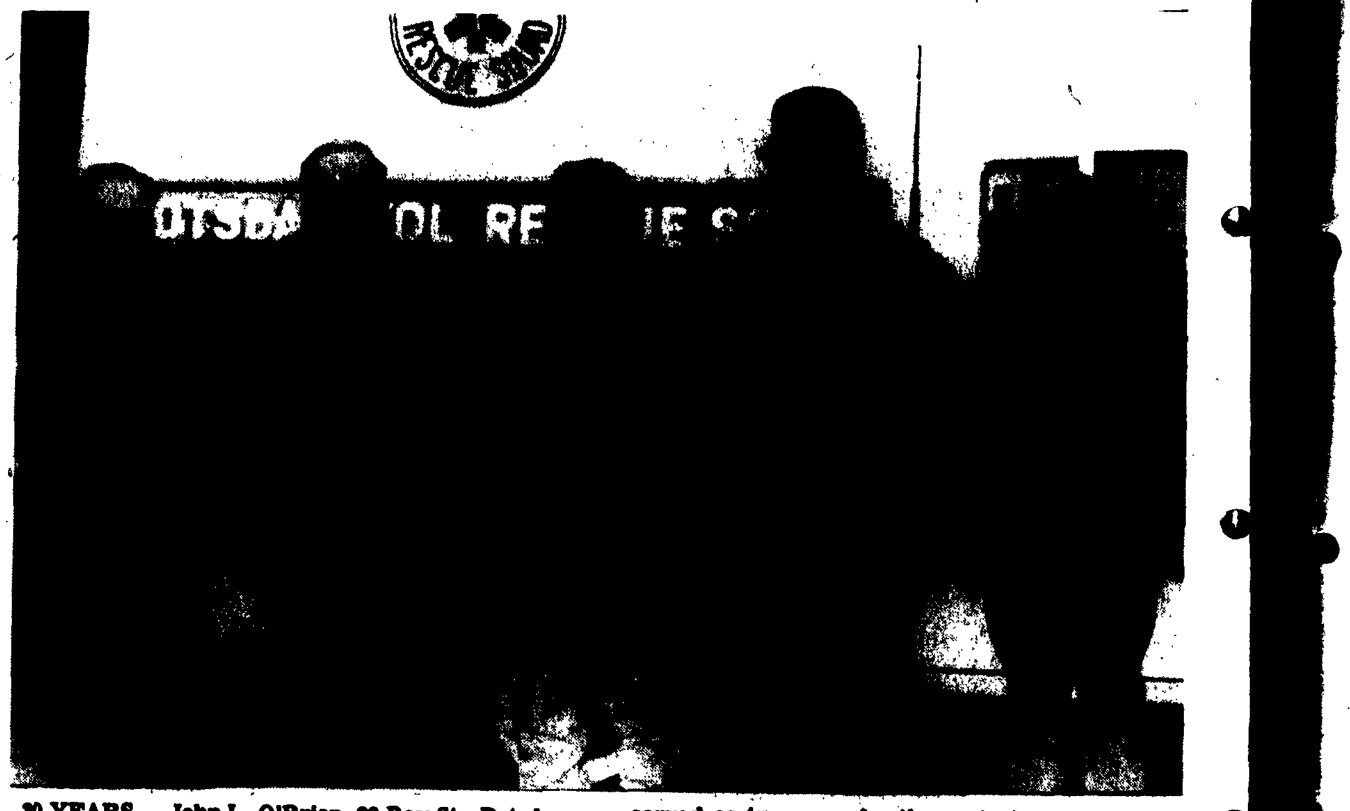
Colts Drop Two More

Chateaugay and St. Lawrence Central handed Colton-Pierrepont two more league losses in last week's Division II action

Against the Larries on Friday, Brian Chamberlain's 16 points and Tim Doyle's 15 wasn't enough to lift the Colts, as SLC won 89-60.

White and Normile combined for 34 points for SLC.

The Bulldogs' Web McHardy pumped in 14 and Kevin McDonald added 13 in Chateaugay's 68-48 win last Tuesday. Doyle netted 16 for the Colts.



30 YEARS — John L. O'Brien, 28 Bay St., Potsdam, was recently presented with an engraved clock in recognition of his 30 years of service with the Potsdam Rescue Squad. O'Brien, who joined the squad in September 1955, was very active until his election to the squad's honor roll in October 1985. He served as treasurer for the past nine years. From left, and representing a total of some 125 years with the squad, are assistant Chief James Miller, Chief William Corbett, O'Brien, squad President George Kahn and assistant Chief Raymond Smith. History Awards Nominations Sought

The Regional Conference of Historical Agencies (RCHA) is now accepting nominations for the RCHA Annual Awards of Merit. The purpose of the annual awards program is to establish and encourage increasingly higher standards of excellence within the historical field in a 23-county area served by the Regional Conference of Historical Agencies.

RCHA Awards of Merit are presented for excellent accomplishments of projects or programs in the field of state, regional, and local history.

The RCHA Awards Committee this year is headed by John Baule, Executive Director, St. Lawrence County Historical Society. Other members of the committee are Constance Barone, Executive Director, Chemung County Historical Society, Mara Kerr, Curator, Oswego Historical Society, Fred Rollins, Director, Wayne County Historical Society.

Programs or accomplishments must have taken place the year preceding the nomination deadline of Feb. 1, 1986.

For further information or nomination forms contact RCHA, 1509 Park St., Syracuse, N.Y. 13208; telephone (315) 475-1525. All nominations with supporting materials must be postmarked no later than Feb. 1, 1986.
