Stoners Bomb Two Foes, Face Malone Tonight

BY DAN WILLIAMS
Sports Editor

Completing the first half of their league schedule at 6-1 and in second place in the NAC Division I race, the Potsdam Sandstomers' boys basketball team battles huge Malone tonight (Tuesday) at 8 p.m. in Potsdam's Sandstomer Gym.

Malone, one of the pre-season favorites to win the league title, will be looking for revenge against a Potsdam team which handed them a 49-46 loss at Malone last December.

"This is going to be a real tough game. Even though Malone is 4-3, I still think they're the most talented team individual-wise in the league. I hope the Potsdam community comes out in droves to support our players, who have been playing exciting ball this year," said Stoner Coach Steve Kmack.

"We had our poorest half of the year. We gave them too many easy baskets off our press. But in the second half, we ran very well, as our pressure began to force turnovers. Jeff (Bajza) and John (Kmack) ran the break great and Andy (Ondek) was the recipient of most of their passes," said Kmack.

Potsdam Beats Tupper
A career-high 34 point outburst by Cheney keyed a big 88-70 Potsdam win at Tupper Lake last Tuesday.

Cheney hit on a variety of outside shots and inside moves over and around the Lumberjacks' 6'6", 230-pound center Matt Winters, an All-State football player.

"Basil turned in one of the finest performances of any big man at Potsdam," said Kmack. "We got the ball to Basil inside where he's most effective. When he's on, Basil can score on anybody."

Potsdam rushed out to a commanding 15-point first quarter lead and stretched it to 16 at the half, 49-33.

Tupper Lake made a run at the talented Stoners in the third quarter, cutting the lead to eight points, before Potsdam turned the pressure up high. A strong fourth quarter effort by the Stoners clinched the win, their 12th of the year.

Ondek added 16 points in another consistent performance from his swingman position. Also in double figures for the Stoners were Bajza with 12 and Patel with 10.

Paul LaMere led the Tupper Lake cause with 20 points and Winters poured in 16 before fouling out.

The Potsdam JV team split their two games last week, losing to Tupper Lake 50-41 and beating Massena 53-33. The freshman team, led by Tim Kmack, won both contests last week.

Flyers Win Two
The Norwood-Norfolk Flyers won their first two league contests last week, edging Canton 57-52 Friday night and defeating Massena 53-42 last Tuesday.

In the win over the Golden Bears, the junior duo of Scott Henry and Scott Collins proved too much for Canton. Henry poured in 23 points and Collins added 20 for Chuck Reynolds' club.

Canton was paced by Mark Simpson's 19 point outing and Terry Thiverge's 13 markers.

Against Massena, Mike Blanchard and Collins each tallied 16 points. Henry chipped in with 12 points. Marc Macauley's 10 points led the Red Raiders.

P-H Keeps Rolling
Parishville-Hopkinton squeaked past Brushton-Moira 46-44 last Friday to remain on a roll in Division II action.

The Panthers used 11 points from Chris Richards and six from Mike Snell to repel B-M.

Tim LaMay and Mike Durant led the losers with 14 and 13 points, respectively.

In a big win last Tuesday, P-H downed the St. Lawrence Central Larries 59-48, behind Mike Snell's 17 points. Helping Snell with the scoring honors were Kevin Hayes with 16 and Richards with eight.

Chris Normile and Jeff White led their first win in two years. Katie Baker, who leads the team in scoring, was the high scorer in the game with 12.

On Thursday night, Potsdam fell to Malone 55-29 in a game which was close for nearly three quarters. The Huskies pulled away from a gallant Stoner crew with a powerful fourth stanza.

Stephanie Harte led the Malone quintet with 18 points, while Mary Burda hit for 12.

Baker was again the shooting star for Potsdam with 13 points. Potsdam received fine games from point guard Kelly Norman and forward Belinda Martin.

TOUR OF DUTY
Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Harold J. Adams, son of Ronald R. and Dale L. Adams of R.D. 4, Potsdam, recently returned from a five-month deployment to the Indian Ocean and Western Pacific while stationed aboard the destroyer USS Oldendorf, homeported in Yokosuka, Japan.
