Midtown Notes

Walt and Oleta Shatrav's daughter, Connie Butler from Keeseville, and Connie's daughter, Beth, and son, Tim, visited the Shatravs last weekend.

Tenants of Midtown enjoyed a delicious sausage and pancake breakfast last Saturday. Many thanks to our good cooks!

Annette Becker entertained her daughter and son-in-law for dinner one day last week.

Clara Plumadore is now a tenant on the fourth floor and we hope she is enjoying her sunny apartment (if and when the sun shines)!

Debra Drive Seniors

Gerald Ashley and daughter from Syracuse visited his mother, Martha Ashley, recently.

Ruby Chambers is a patient in Canton-Potsdam Hospital.

Margaret Dutton's daughter, Beverly, and two children visited Margaret recently.

Frances Gravin has returned home from the hospital. We hope she is feeling much better.

Tax Workshop Offered

On Feb. 10 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Cooperative Extension Office, George Field, Cooperative Extension coordinator will present a step-by-step explanation of filling out a tax return.

Changes in the tax law will be mentioned, as well as tips on itemized deductions, interest and dividend income, income averaging, deduction for a married couple when both work, employee business expenses, credit for child and dependent care
