

Clarkson Falls To Team Canada 4-2

Team Canada overcame a 2-1 deficit after two periods of play with three unanswered goals (two on the powerplay) in the final stanza to defeat Clarkson University 4-2 in an exhibition hockey game at Walker Arena last Saturday night.

Canada's pre-Olympic team for the 1988 Winter Olympics in Calgary, Alberta, improved its record against U.S. college teams to 11-2. They are 23-21-2 overall.

The Golden Knights battled the tough, forechecking Canadians throughout the contest and although they were outshot 35-16, the game was not decided until the closing moments of play.

Team Canada opened the scoring in the first period when Trent

Yawney intercepted a Clarkson clearing pass at the blueline and passed to Cliff Ronning, who set up Don McLaren at the left corner of Knight goalie Jamie Falle for a shorthanded goal at 6:42.

Freshman Brad James, a former Potsdam High standout, evened the score at 13:21 when he scored from the right side past screened Canada goalie Alain Raymond. Jean Rouleau and Luciano Borsato set up the play behind the net.

Clarkson took a 2-1 lead in the second period as Borsato tipped in an Al Hill pass across the crease for a four-on-three powerplay goal at 2:51.

Team Canada mounted their comeback at 9:47 in the final period when Tony Hrkac, on the

Cliff Ronning, on the powerplay, tallied the gamewinner for the Canadian team in an empty net at 11:27 as Falle, who went to control the puck, was caught out of position after an odd bounce off the back boards.

Notching his second goal of the night, McLaren added an insurance goal from h slot at 16:48 to give Canada the two-goal victory margin.

Clarkson takes to the road this weekend with important road games against RPI on Jan. 31 and Vermont on Feb. 1.

Benefit Hockey Game

A benefit hockey game pitting the Clarkson University faculty-staff "Ancients" against the WYNY-TV "No-Stars" will take place at Clarkson's Walker Arena on Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets will be available at door for $1. All proceeds of the game will benefit a new Creative Playground Area at the Lawrence Avenue Elementary School in Potsdam.

The playground is being designed by the nationally-known architectural firm of Robert Leathers Associates, using sketches created by the children of Lawrence Avenue Elementary School and St. Mary's Catholic School in Potsdam. The project, sponsored by the Potsdam Rotary Club, will be completed in four days of community effort by parents, teachers and students this June.

"The Rotary playground project is generating quite a bit of interest in the Potsdam area, and we hope that this game can contribute significantly to the fund-raising efforts," said Richard Valente, director of Clarkson's Andrew S. Schuler Educational Resources Center and president of the Potsdam Rotary Club.

OFA Nips Stoners...

 OFA last Tuesday, despite a 25-point outburst from Collins. Henry added 13. Wright led OFA with 14 points.

P-H Rolls
 Parishville-Hopkinton, looking anything like a pretender for the Division II crown, blasted Madrid-Waddington 40-12 Friday night behind a balanced scoring attack led by Kevin Hayes' 10 points.

Last Tuesday, in a tough battle, delayed a day because of a bomb scare, P-H outlasted Saint Regis Falls 53-42, despite trailing 32-27 at the half.

Hayes had 15, Chris Richards and Rob Beha added 14 for the Division II leading Panthers. Jeff Sevey and Tom Brown each scored 12 for the losers.

Colts Split
 Saint Regis Falls defeated Colton-Pierrepont 47-45 Friday night behind 16 points from Sevey.

Tim Doyle's sparkling 22-point night led the Colts to the near-upset of the Saints.

Last Tuesday, they handed M-W a 53-51 loss when Doyle nailed a shot at the buzzer to complete a 7-point comeback in the final 1:45 of the game.

Doyle was hot, scoring 31 points as he continues to be one of the NAC's most prolific scorers this winter.

Recreation Corner

The Potsdam Recreation Commission will be taking job applications from Feb. 3 through March 10 for summer employment.

Applications may be picked up at MVP Sports, Potsdam High School, or Pine Street Arena.
