Parishville And Hopkinton News

BY HELEN CONDON
265-2482

Dear Readers,

Just before Christmas 1986, in fact at 7:45 Dec. 22 twin boys were born to Nancy (LaRue) and Allan Mittelstaedt at Oneida Hospital in Oneida. Proud parents, yes, but prouder grandparents are Corliss and John Mittelstaedt of Ashton Road in Parishville, Ken LaRue of Parishville and Carol LaRue of Gouverneur. Nancy's brothers, Bob, who works at WPDM radio station and Bill who is a reporter for the Post Standard, stand as uncles. Twins Kevin James (5 lbs. 6 oz.) and Joseph John (5 lbs. 7 oz.) are doing fine. Congratulations and good wishes.

On Jan. 8 the Ladies Aid Society of the United Methodist Church of Parishville will hold a meeting at the home of Jane Daby. Jane lives at the corner of Catherine and Clark streets. The Society will hold a covered dish supper at the town hall Jan. 15 at 5:30. The cost is $3 per person and under 12 will be asked to donate $1.50.

This time of year calendars seem to be the gift given to people you don't know too personally, usually with the greeting "Hope this is something you can use." Some have pictures on every page, some one picture and some advertising underneath. One purchased from the fifth grade class when they came around in November boasts a glossy surface, the whole year at a glance and a magic marker designed to be able to write in black and then erase with a dry soft cloth for any changes. The Far Side, a cartoon enjoyed by my family, shows jokes on each page, wonderfully crazy jokes that show the frailties of human nature. The one calendar I will use has a small plastic top with a pull off backing that sticks on the file cabinet near my desk. It has small pages for the dates and months which rip off at the appropriate time and there's no room for writing. But it doesn't take up much space or jolt me with someone else's idea of humor or wit. There's no small puppies or kittens playing with yarn or pictures of people skiing down the Swiss slopes.

The woodshed of this house I live in now had some calendars on the wall that were out of date. I suppose the previous owner, Mrs. Harrington, found the messages on the pages comforting for it was a religious calendar series compliments of the Buck Funeral Home in Norwood. Parishville Union Church was the sponsor and Rev. Peter Davis, the pastor at the time, (1960 and 1958). The 1959 and 1963 calendars were sponsored by the Parishville Dairy which printed recipes on the back of each page. The recipes, of course, were based on dairy products, especially ice cream.

Birthdays, anniversaries and other important dates are being written on calendars. Some important dates in the coming week... Andy Jacot and his wife Stacey (Kelley) were married Jan. 7, 1984. That date is synonymous with the first balloon crossing the English Channel in 1785 and the first presidential election in the United States in 1789. If you mark down the weather in the first 12 days of January on your calendars it is an old saying that that weather will be indicated in the 12 months of the coming year. I don't know if it's true, but have written down half of them so far and will continue this week to mark the rest.

Anyone with news for next week's column is asked to call Helen Condon by Jan. 9. Happy birthday to my daughter Heidi who will be 25 on Jan. 12 and to Heather who turned 26 on Dec. 28.
