We have been "dog-sitting" the past few weeks for a neighbor's dog. It has been a lot of fun but also taught us (another) lesson in humility. We were out with the dog on a Sunday morning and as each person that we met passed, their eyes lit up, and they greeted—the dog!

The Norwood Library is celebrating its 75th anniversary this year. The original Library Association was formed in 1912 with 47 members, each paying a membership fee of $1. The library was housed above the Norwood Bakery in the social rooms of the Masonic Lodge, and contained about 1,000 books as well as three daily newspapers. Mrs. Ella Pease was the first librarian, assisted by Miss Margaret Fletcher. The library has steadily built its collection to about 12,000 books, as well as periodicals, pictures, records, and jigsaw puzzles. The dues for Association membership are now $2 and entitle the member to five fine free days. (A boon for me—I don't know why those books are so hard to get back on time.) If you would like to become an Association member and support the library, see Marcia Murray, librarian, The Norwood Library, 1000 Main St., Norwood, N.Y. 12556.

The Norwood Playground committee held a drawing on Jan. 5 from the community quilt. Trish Smith, from Mrs. Putman's developmental kindergarten was the lucky winner. The committee would like to thank the following merchants for displaying the quilt: Jay's Bouquets, The Sunset Lodge, Peggy's Lunch, and the Norwood Library.

The Catholic Daughters of St. Andrew's Church sponsored a poster contest with the theme "A New Beginning." The contest was open to all children in the religious education program. The winners at each grade level were: P-1—Amanda Davey, 1—Kristin Colarusso, 2—(tie) Travis Hinkley and Colleen Hipp, 3—Mark Deon, 4—Danny Tebo, 5—Mark LePage.

The March of Dimes campaign is now underway. Chairperson Helen Deugaw and co-chairperson Louise Pierce would like to thank last year's volunteers who braved the bad weather and collected $677 for this worthy cause. Coin boxes have been set out around the village and a volunteer may be calling on you to contribute to the March of Dimes.

Helen Deugaw has recently returned from Oswego, where she spent the holidays with her daughter, Deborah Hayes, and her family. They were joined for Christmas dinner by John and Sandra Tebo, and Donald and Susan Deugaw. The family celebrated a birthday luncheon in honor of Ethel LaGarry on Dec. 31. Her daughter Eunice Nezzeson, Elaine Francis, and granddaughter Leslie Hopshire were hostesses for the affair.

January birthdays were celebrated at Baldwin Acres on Jan. 5 with a covered dish dinner. Honored were Dorothy Nash, Anne Green, Iva Dufore, and Jesse Farmer.

Harold and Joan Raymond took Anne Green to the Sunset Lodge this past weekend for a birthday dinner.

On Dec. 22, Cub Scout Pack 40 held its monthly meeting. The theme of the meeting was Christmas. Den 4 opened the meeting with the presentation of colors. The "I Spy Santa" contest was won by Zach Paul. Sixteen Santas were around to be counted. The cubs winning awards were: Mike Grant, Mark LePage, Zach Paul, Josh Young, Todd Stubbs, Francis Farrington, Robbie Fiocco, Nathan LaComb, and Geoff VanDuyne—webelos badge; Richard Ayling and Tim Almsy—bobcat; Chris Plonka—wolf; Bob Ashley—bear; Adam Gadoway—gold arrow; George Upham—bear, gold arrow and two silver arrows. The pack as a group earned the "Quality Award for 1986." Congratulations to the cubs, leaders and committee members.

A skill, "The Lamp Post" was performed by den 3, followed by a game presented by den 5. Mr. VanDuyne provided the music for the evening.

The cubs would like to thank everyone who helped to make the evening a festive and successful one.

Upcoming cub scout events are: the Pinewood Derby at the Municipal building on Jan. 17 at 1 p.m., and the Blue and Gold Banquet on Feb. 22.

The Boy Scouts enjoyed an evening of Christmas caroling followed by a Pizza party on Dec. 23. They divided into two groups and traveled around the village, spreading Christmas cheer. The festivities afterwards included games, roasting chestnuts, exchanging gifts, and eating tons of pizza.

Congratulations to the following Scouts who earned badges in December: Gene Artz—First Aid Skill Award, Jim Finen—Family Living and Physical Fitness Skill Awards, Tim Scott—Camping, Communications, First Aid, and Physical Fitness Skill Awards, Josh Deon, Michael Deon, Willy LaRose, John McCauley, and Brian Perry—First Aid Merit badges.

The Boy Scouts will hold their bottle and can drive on Jan. 17 from 9 a.m. to noon.

Don't wait to get your tickets for the Kiwanis drawing and dinner-dance. The Brass Firemen will not be available that night to play, as reported last week. The members of the band Topaz, Andy VanDuyne, Scott LaVine, Joe Marliano Jr. and Greg Jados, have kindly donated their time and talent to benefit this project.

Officers of Lyra Chapter 230 OES 1987 were installed on Jan. 7. They are: matron—Hazel Gardner, patron—Wayne Fielding, associate matron—Patricia Ridsdale, associate patron—Leon Burnap, secretary—Charlene Fielding, treasurer—Alice McGomber, conductress—Barbara Edgerly, associate conductress—Irma Jean Clark, trustee for three years—Patricia LaRue, chaplain—Lorraine Bartlett, marshal—Emma Blanchard, assistant marshal—Loretta Hann, historian—Jeanne Nicholson, musician—Florence Clark, warder—Barbara Murray, color bearer—Jean Cotey, Adah—Deborah MacIntire, Ruth—Keitha MacIntire, Esther—Monique Colbert, Martha—Wilma Ginn, and Electa—Elaine Francis.

The Norwood-Norfolk School Board meets on Jan. 13 (tonight) in the High School library at 7 p.m.

The Norwood Library Board of Trustees will hold its annual meeting on Jan. 14 at 7 p.m. in the community room of this library. The meeting is open to the public.

The Norwood-Norfolk PTSA is sponsoring a program on the Regents Action Plan on Jan. 15, at 7 p.m. in the high school library. This program will examine the R.A.P. and how it will affect students at all grade levels.

There will be a troop meeting for Boy Scout Troop 40 on Jan. 20 at the scout hall at 7 p.m. Knot of the night is the tautline hitch.

NAMED TO POST—Deanna Page, shown above, has been named director of medical records at Canton-Potsdam Hospital. A licensed practical nurse, she has worked in patient care areas and as utilization review coordinator. Page is a native of Norfolk. She lives in Winthrop with her husband, Randy, and three children.

Lawmakers Hold Year-End Meeting

BY MILDRED JENKINS

NORFOLK—Supervisor Richard Merchant presided at the year-end meeting of the Norfolk Town Board Dec. 29, in the Norfolk Town Hall.

Mrs. Jean Young, curator of the Town of Norfolk Historical Museum, has notified the board that the museum has just received from William P. Rogers, a complete set (five volumes) of the report of the commission investigating the shuttle Challenger disaster. These books will be available to anyone who wishes to use them for research or study, at the museum. They will not be loaned out.

Robert K. Boshane, chief of the Norfolk Town Police Department, presented the following statistics for November: complaints, 24; closed cases, 21; gasoline used, 106 gallons; mileage, 1,344.

Kenneth J. Dallos, chairman of the Norfolk Youth Commission, presented the recreation budget from Jan. 1, 1986 to Dec. 27, 1986 as follows: total budget for 1986, $47,125; total spent to date, $44,621.11; total income to date, $25,385.67. Arena winter expenses paid Jan. 1, 1986 to Dec. 27, 1986, $32,478.50. Norfolk summer expenses May 14, 1986 to Sept. 12, 1986, $7,886.90. Raymondville expenses, $2,547.95.

Program assistance: Little League, $400; T-Ball, $300; M.N.M.H., $600; Dept. of Labor, $408; (unemployment), a total of $1,708, which makes a grand total of $44,621.41 total spent to date.

Unbudgeted money spent: ceiling material for arena, $7,000.

Income: Ice rental, $21,886.75; C.D. interest, $370.67; arena rental (auction) $250; county youth money, $2,878.25; making a grand total of income: $25,385.67.

Mrs. Louise Bixby, Community Development Officer, presented her monthly report.

On the status of the Raymondville-Bridge, a letter has been received from the New York Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation stating that it has to go through all administrative procedures before they can notify the town board about applying for monies for the bridge.

In regard to the Raymondville drainage proposal, the supervisor will talk to the engineer before a decision is made.

The town board is contemplating the sale of the District 4 Building located on Route 420, Winthrop-Massena Road, and expects to make a final decision at the Jan. 12 special town board meeting. Councilman William Todd did a very extensive study into the costs of a new drilled well at the present building, and costs of an addition to the No. 3 Fire Station, located near the District 4 Building, as a replacement for the existing building.

The town board will contact Tom Orologio in regards to the Tecon Sale. The board members feel that delays have been excessive. In order to finalize this purchase, the papers must be signed by Jan. 31.

Mrs. Betty Graham was appointed to the planning board to fill the remainder of the five unexpired year term of Paul Mercier.

In January two more appointments will be made to the planning board, as well as an appointment to the Norfolk Heppburn Library Board to replace Mrs. Ruth McDougall.

The town board voted unanimously to change the sanitary landfill hours. It will now be open from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays until the last of April.

Also, remarks were made relative to the future about trash collection and disposal in the township of Norfolk. The town board agreed this is a problem to be looked at now. They will start making inquiries and develop alternatives for eventual trash collection.

Legislator Donald Purvis would like changes in the voting districts to make it more convenient for voters. The requirement is to follow boundaries. Supervisor Richard Merchant will look into this request to see how much would be involved to make changes.

The existing problem of parking congestion at the Norfolk Recreation Center, Clinton Street, will be turned over to the Youth Commission and they will be requested to report their recommendations to the town board as soon as possible.

A letter was received from a private licensed wildlife control agency offering services for removal of nuisance wild animals such as beavers. If anyone has need of these services, they are asked to contact the Norfolk Town Hall.

Ron Chase commended the Town of Norfolk Highway Department for sanding the roads on Christmas Eve.

Following the meeting, the board members visited the Norfolk Historical Museum.

A special meeting of the Norfolk

Town Board will be held at 6:30 p.m. Jan. 12 in the Norfolk Town Hall.

The next regular meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Jan. 26 in the Norfolk Town Hall.

Norwood Library

Well it's time to begin a new year, and I have an excellent suggestion for a resolution. Resolve to read a good book a month, and let your librarian show you where they're located.

The Norwood Library Board of Trustees will hold its annual meeting at 7 p.m. Jan. 14, in the community room. Reports about the year's activities will be given by the president, secretary, treasurer, and librarian. You will be able to join the Library Association at this time.

Association membership is $2 per individual and $4 per family. For your support, you receive five fine-free days. Please consider supporting your library.

The Library will be celebrating its 75th anniversary this year. We are planning several special events. Our first event will be a theme contest. We are looking for a special slogan to use this year. Please submit any ideas you have, in writing, to: Norwood Library, P.O. Box 206, Norwood, 13668, or leave them with the librarian. A prize will be awarded for the winning entry.

The library is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. Come, read, and enjoy.

Ashley Scores High On GED Examination

A Norfolk resident recently earned national recognition for an "extremely high score" on the nationwide General Education Division (GED) examination, according to the Board of Cooperative Services (BOCES).

Janice L. Ashley was a student at the BOCES Massena Adult Education Center. She earned a score of 312 out of a possible 380 on the test. The passing score is 225, and anything above 300 qualifies the student for national recognition.

Ashley plans to retire to Montana with her family in the near future and use her skills to run a family-owned business.

Another group of students is getting ready for the GED test to be given on Jan. 23 and 24. For further information on how you can be part of this program call the center nearest you: Massena 769-5895, Canton 386-8476, Norwood 353-2313, Gouverneur 287-1558, Ogdensburg 393-6410.

COUPON COOKBOOK

Marion Joyce

Corn Starch is preferred for thickening Oriental dishes because it gives a clear, translucent appearance, while adding no flavor of its own. ARGO® and KINGSFORD'S® are superior quality corn starch. Hints for Oriental Cooking: Partially freeze meat to make it easier to thinly slice. To peel fresh garlic, press clove with side of wide knife. The peel slips off. To thicken hot sauces for Oriental dishes, mix a little corn starch with cold water. While stirring, add it to the sauce, bring boil and boil 1 minute. USE COUPON BELOW

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------------|
| 2 tablespoons Mazola® corn oil | 1 cup cool beef broth |
| 1 pound beef flank or round | 1/4 cup soy sauce |
| steak, thinly sliced diagonally | 1/4 cup dry sherry |
| 1/4 cup sliced orange peel | 1/4 cup orange marmalade |
| 1 clove garlic, minced | 1/2 teaspoon crushed dried red pepper |
| 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger | |
| 2 tablespoons ARGO® or KINGSFORD'S® corn starch | |

In wok or large skillet, heat corn oil over medium-high heat. Add beef 1/3 at a time. Stir fry 3 minutes or until browned. Return all beef to wok. Add orange peel, garlic and ginger. Stir fry 1 minute. Stir together corn starch, broth, soy sauce and sherry until smooth. Stir into beef. Add marmalade and dried pepper. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat and boil 1 minute. Serve over rice. Makes 4 servings. Stir-Fried Spicy Orange Chicken: Follow basic recipe. Omit beef and beef broth. Use 1 pound thinly sliced boneless, skinless chicken breasts and 1 cup cool chicken broth.
