Mrs. Julia Keyes, Plumbrook Road, Norfolk, wishes to thank everyone for her many lovely birthday cards and flowers that she received on her 101st birthday, Dec. 31.

She also had a lovely birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Martha Chase, Knapps Station, and that night she had her favorite meal of cabbage rolls. Friends called throughout the day.

Mrs. Keyes has been spending the past 10-12 winters in Tampa, Fla., at the home of her daughter, Miss Constance Keyes. Last March she fell and broke her right hip, and in April she came home.

She remained in her own home until October when she went to spend the winter months at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Harold and Colleen McNamara, Plumbrook Road.

Mrs. Keyes is up and dressed each day, but is confined to a wheelchair. She enjoys her favorite TV shows and listening to the radio. She enjoys playing with her friends.

She watched the snow coming down this past week and remarked how pretty it was. It has been several years since she saw snow.

The night of her birthday she remarked to her daughter that she had enjoyed her birthday very much and was very appreciative of everything. She also said, "I thank God every night for my blessings."

S Sgt. Brian Cyrus, son of Frank and Norma Cyrus, West Stockholm, left recently for his new assignment at Grand Forke, N.D. He spent the holidays with his family after spending three years in Augsburg, Germany, with the U.S. Air Force.

Mrs. Anne Green, Baldwin Acres, Norwood, was a birthday dinner guest at the home of her grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Renee) Raymond, 79 North Main St., Norwood, Jan. 8, in honor of her 79th birthday.

Mrs. Florence Clark, Raymondville, has returned home after spending the holidays at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, John and Lynn Town and Rebecca, Johnsonville.

Milan Scott, formerly of Stockholm, now of Lawrenceville, has returned home after being a patient in the Canton-Potsdam Hospital for several days.
