NEWSBRIEF

The brothers of Phi Kappa Sigma at Potsdam College have been active in the community over the last semester, according to spokesman Don Schaefer. Most recently, members of the group unloaded a truck of government surplus foods into other trucks for distribution to needy families. Other projects included participating in a tuck-in service with Gamma Sigma Sigma. A tuck-in consists of putting a person to bed, reading a bedtime story, and sometimes giving a goodnight kiss, Schaefer said. Proceeds from this fundraiser went to the Big Brother and Big Sister program and to the American Diabetes Foundation. Members of the group also painted the garage of a local

Ice Carnival Kick-Off Friday

Ice Carnival kickoff on Jan. 30 and ends Feb. 7. The theme for this year's carnival is "Fantasy." The various events will be cavalcade, float parade, window painting, oil cloth, ice skating, winter sports, and ice status. All events are judged individually, with winners and induction of royalty announced at the ball. "This year we hope to see more non-Greek organizations (dorms, floors, church groups, clubs, etc.) getting involved," organizations said. There are no restrictions on how many events one can enter, so get involved in one or all. Cavalcade will be Friday at 7 p.m. and Saturday at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. in Snell Hall Clarkson. On Sunday, parade judging will be at 12:30, with a 1:30 start at Walker Arena, Clarkson, concluding at Raymond Hall, Potsdam.

On Monday, there will be broom-ball at 8 p.m. in Maxcy Hall, Potsdam, and on Tuesday, volleyball at 7 at Maxcy Hall.

On Wednesday, oil cloth judging will be held at Lewis House Clarkson, and Potsdam Student Union. There will be tricycle relay races at 8 p.m. in Maxcy Hall.

On Thursday, there will be a pie eating contest at 7 p.m. in the Potsdam Student Union.

On Saturday there will be cross country skiing at 10 a.m. in Lehman Park, tug-o-war 1 p.m. in Lehman Park and ball 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the Potsdam Student Union.
